7. Transferring your Personal Information Internationally

The personal information we collect is not transferred to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union.

8. How long do we keep personal information for?

All information that we hold about an individual will be retained as deemed necessary. If an individual has not played an active part in the sport or acknowledged that they no longer wish to retain their current membership status, their contact details will be deleted on request.

The following information will be retained for historic performance and reporting purposes - TTiD, Name, DoB, results and contact details were relevant. An individual will be contacted each year to ensure that the data we hold about them is correct. This can be updated via the individual portal that an individual has access to.

Generally, where there is no legal requirement, we retain all physical and electronic records for a period 6 years after your last contact with us. Exceptions to this rule are:

- CCTV records which are held for no more than 30 days unless we need to preserve the records for the purpose of prevention and detection of crime.

- Information that may be relevant to personal injury claims, or discrimination claims may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after you have worked for us.
- TTIID, Name, DoB, results and contact details where relevant will be retained for historic performance and reporting purposes It is important to ensure that the personal information, we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you change your phone number or email address. We will contact individuals every year to ensure that the data we hold about them is correct. However, this can be updated at any /me via the individual portal that an individual has access to, or by contacting Table Tennis England via its website.
