Spectacular start for England

WELCOME to the first edition of Table Tennis News for the 1989 - 90 season — if the result of our first European League match is anything to go by it is one of rich promise. Who could have forecast a win in our first match away against the World Champions Sweden but may I on behalf of all table tennis enthusiasts congratulate our players on a splendid team effort and to Don Parker for sending out the players to compete in exactly the right frame of mind to secure success. Our next fixture is away to Poland and then comes our first home fixture at home to Holland on Thursday 26th October at Sheffield — we have a score to settle here for it was Holland who by their win in Norwich in the final match of the 1988 season kept us in the First Division for an extra year.

BBC Grandstand did us proud last weekend when giving us excellent coverage of the Leeds Masters at Preston Guildhall. Des Douglas again proved that he still is a force to be reckoned with in top class international table tennis and battled hard before having to concede second best to Jean Philippe Gatien in a splendid final.

This edition of Table Tennis News is also a first for me having taken over the Editorial mantle from John Woodford. John has put a great deal of journalistic expertise into this magazine and expertise on the creative side that I do not possess but I have been involved in the printing world since my school days a great many years ago and I hope my first venture into editing meets with your approval... Please continue to send in your items for inclusion in subsequent issues especially about your League or Club’s efforts to promote our sport and if including photographs a much clearer reproduction will be obtained from a black and white. If you have any amusing stories or incidents to recall or the odd “...did you hear...” not libellous I would be grateful for your contribution. Cartoons also do a great deal to brighten up the magazine... so if we have any cartoonists among our readers please send me your handiwork via Head Office.

Wishing you all an enjoyable season’s table tennis.

MICHAEL O’DRISCOLL the Mirfield teenager who last season rose magnificently to the occasion to convincingly defeat all the top Korean players in the English Junior Open at Bridlington then narrowly failed to win the Junior Singles title in the European championships in Luxembourg losing out in the final to the Russian, Dimitry Gusev.
THE ETTA Accounts for the year which ended last March indicated a remarkable transformation from the state of affairs which existed only two years ago. During that short period a loss of nearly £50,000 was turned into a profit of close to £100,000.

SUMMER MADNESS
It is an achievement of which we can all be proud, but it is not one that should produce yet another era of complacency when we can all relax. The achievement was no more than the Sport needed. Half of the profit merely makes good the previous loss. The other half wipes out the £50,000 overdraft on which the Association had existed during the summer months for a number of years. I regarded it as quite absurd that a leading Sport should exist in this way under a cloud of debt and paying high rates of bank interest. That absurdity has now ended.

A further notable event was our departure from "Claremont", the Victorian slum where our offices were located. Climbing stairs is a less dangerous business now, as there is no danger of getting one’s feet caught in a hole that had not been repaired for years. The stench of dry rot and decay will not be missed.

Our offices are now in a modern building in Hastings. The cost of the years of neglect was a little short of £25,000, but in real terms much greater. This would have been even more but for the negotiating skills of our Chief Executive and others in the Management Team. Our obligations under the old lease are now at an end. The costs of all this have been paid and will not be a burden in future years.

THE FUTURE
1989/90 will not produce the record profits of the last year, which was a unique one which finally rescued us from our crisis situation. A small profit is likely and one that keeps us on the same basis as that established over the last two years.

If our Members need help, for instance in staff time or even financial, we are now in a position to give this. Our new Development Officer, Diccon Gray, has been engaged to help you to develop the Sport, particularly at local level and any idea or scheme which will advance the game and bring more Members into the Sport will have our fullest support.

We shall continue to work hard for the image of the Sport, for international success and media exposure which brings the Sport to the attention of our fellows, in the hope that more and more will take up the game.

We are in competition with at least a hundred other sports and we have to manage our affairs at least as well as most of them just to survive and better if we are to progress.

The market place of Sport is tough and competitive. It demands idealism as well as efficiency, self-discipline as well as unity.

I look forward to the coming season and its challenges.

Let us make it a memorable one.

CHALLENGE TO SPORT

Table Tennis on Channel 4

ON 29TH APRIL 1989, a special “Challenge to Sport” advertisement for table tennis was shown on Channel 4. The series was a shop window for each sport shown, encouraging children and adults to take up the game and to become regular players. 159 leagues and 147 clubs in England responded positively to a request from the ETTA to set up a “Come and try it” session where those whose interest had been fired by the programme could find out more about our sport first hand, and get straight into action.

With financial assistance from The Daily Telegraph, 13,000 posters were printed for league and club use to advertise their session locally, thus attempting to interest the general public as well as the programme viewers.

Immediately after the transmission of the programme, ETTA staff, plus local league volunteers answered calls on the table tennis Help-line, and thanks to the marvellous network of league and club responses, were able to direct enthusiasts to a Come and try it session in their locality.

Each caller was given a genuine warm and positive welcome from the Help-line which can only have served to increase their wish to try our sport, and furthermore a list of local league clubs was sent out to each inquirer with the “Challenge to Sport” newspaper. From initial research, no other sporting associations featured in the series supported their programme with such positive action; well done our leagues and clubs!

Though the number of callers directed to each Come and try it day was quite low in view of the national spread, we were well up to average of other sports recorded. From the feedback received, it is true to say that the Come and try it sessions were of mixed success in terms of attendance of new participants, with figures ranging from 0 - 70.

What was undoubtedly a great success was the superb response and effort made by our leagues and clubs which clearly demonstrates that there are many people interested in and willing to further the development of table tennis.

Tage Flisberg — Obituary

We announce with regret the death of Tage Flisberg, one of the great players of the forties and fifties.

"Flisanc", a cool and undemonstrative left-handed attacker, made his international debut in 1936 playing for Sweden against Germany, and in the succeeding years up to 1955 created a record by winning the Swedish men's singles championship 13 times. Altogether he won 54 national titles.

He could not make a living from table tennis and had to hold various jobs. He played a great part in the development of the sport in his country and was the forerunner of the later generation of highly successful Swedish players.

The Russians are Coming!

A four match tour of England by the Soviet Union Table Tennis team will take place between 9 and 14 November 1989.

The USSR team claimed a semi-final place in the Dortmund World Championships in April with a sensational victory over a South Korean team including both the Gold and Silver Medalists from the Seoul Olympics. Although they lost to China at that stage their fourth place has underlined the dramatic shift in world table tennis dominance from East to West, with Sweden taking both team and individual titles.

The Soviet Team in Dortmund was based on the two brothers Mazunov. Andrei, the elder at 22 years of age, lives in Gorky and won the European Youth Championships in 1984, beating England’s Carl Prean. He was the losing finalist in the last European Championships. His younger brother, Dmitrij (18) is rising through the World ranking list and achieved a memorable win over Jan-Ove Waldner, now the World Champion, in last season’s Yugoslav Open. Both of these players will spearhead the Soviet team, supported by V Dvorka and S Vardanian.

England will need to field their strongest team to score the victories which team manager Donald Parker feels are possible. Parker said “The current England Team is the best for over a decade. With Cooke, Prean and Douglas in form we are a match for any team in the World and with our home supporters behind us are confident of beating the Soviets”.

Andrei Mazunov

BBC Television have already contracted to carry one of the matches on Grandstand on 11 November as a follow up to their highly acclaimed coverage of England’s series against Sweden last season.
Silver Lining for Michael
by GEORGE R. YATES

Victories over Lindo Greve of the Netherlands, Frantisek Kanta of Czechoslovakia, Slobodan Grujic of Yugoslavia, Torben Wosik of the Federal Republic of Germany (7 and 81) and Maxim Shmyrov of the USSR carried England's Michael O'Driscoll into the final of the boys' singles in Luxembourg.

IT WAS truly a remarkable run but alas the winning sequence was halted in the final when the Yorkshire lad seemingly lacking his previous impetus went under to the Soviet Union's Dmitriy Gusev who won 16 and 19 in what was, from an English point of view, a disappointing anti-climax.

Nonetheless it was a great performance from the Milfield boy whose Yorkshire compatriot Chris Oldfield reached the last sixteen losing to O'Driscoll's bete noire, Gusev. That just about sums up the extent of English successes in which all titles, both team and individual, were won by players from eastern Europe with the exception of the junior boys' doubles in which Federal Germany's Torben Wosik and Josef Hong triumphed, and the cadet boys doubles annexed by David Gustafsson and Adam Rasmberg of Sweden.

Reverting to the boys' singles both Jonathan Taylor and Neil Bevan were eliminated in the first round, the former by Fredrik Lundquist of Sweden and the latter by Luis Proenca of Portugal. In the girls' singles, won by Gabriella Oldfield of Hungary, both Julie Billington and Debbie Toole survived the first round only to fall in the second to Nuria Badia Font of Spain and Adriana Nastase of Romania respectively.

Again, in the girls' doubles, a first round win was not improved upon when Julie and Debbie played second fiddle to Alessia Arisi and Cristina Semenza of Italy the title going to the Hungarian sisters, Gabriella and Veronika Wirth. No benefit accrued for O'Driscoll and Oldfield in the opening round, a first round bye being followed by defeat at the hands of David Stepanek and Kanta of Czechoslovakia while Taylor and Bevan were ousted in the opening round by Jochen Kaiser of Federal Germany partnered by Sandro Caenaro of Luxembourg.

It was another disaster in the journal mixed with Oldfield/Toole falling to qualify for Round 1 when Dimitris Papadimitriou and Christina Lazaridou of Greece beat them while O'Driscoll/Billington bowled out to another Greek pair, George Hantis and Despina Dandoula in Round 2.

What then of our cadets? Well, in the qualifying stage of the boys' singles, Barry Forster lost to Bogdan Vesciniovic of Yugoslavia while Alex Perry on his first visit to the table lost to Andrey Bondarev of the Soviet Union. End of story? Our girls did somewhat better especially the diminutive Nicola Deaton who reached the last sixteen of the girls' singles beating Maria Bubb of the Isle of Man and Ursula Rozner of Poland before falling to Nora Simon of Hungary. Sally Marling also had an IOM victim in Rd. 1, Julie Owen, but was seen off by Melissa Muller of the Netherlands in Rd. 2.

In the cadet boys' doubles Forster and Perry put down a Greek pair in the first round but then lost, desperately, to Lucjan Blaszczyk and Tomasz Krzeszowski of Poland who won 25-23, 25-23! Nicola and Sally took an early departure losing in Round one to Gaelle Mathieu and Cathy Rollen of Belgium.

It was no better fortune in the mixed with Forster/Deaton beaten in the first round by Herbert Saenen and Vanessa Vrancken of Belgium as were Perry/Marling by Radoslaw/Zurek and Joanna Narkiewicz of Poland. Oh where, oh where do we go from here?

At a looking at the finishing positions in the team events also gives cause for concern with only the cadet girls improving from positions attained at the last championships in Novi Sad, Yugoslavia. In Luxembourg the junior boys dropped from 4 to 8, the junior girls from 10 to 11, the cadet boys from 8 to 13, only the cadet girls coming up from 12 to 8.

On paper England's junior boys' team of O'Driscoll, Oldfield, Taylor and Bevan appeared to be in with a chance of medals borne out in the initial groupings with 5-0 wins over Malta, Norway and Italy with only one set dropped against Poland when Taylor lost to Piotr Skierski.

Regrouped with France and the Netherlands we saw us still on course with a 5-2 win over Malta, Norway and Italy with only one set dropped against Poland when Taylor lost to Piotr Skierski.

Reverting to the boys' singles beating Maria Bubb of the Isle of Man and Ursula Rozner of Poland before falling to Nora Simon of Hungary. Sally Marling also had an IOM victim in Rd. 1, Julie Owen, but was seen off by Melissa Muller of the Netherlands in Rd. 2.

In the final it was the Swedes who fought back to win 16 and 19 in what was, from an English point of view, a disappointing anti-climax.

slovakia and Italy which left us playing Federal Germany for a final 7th or 8th place which turned out to be the latter with the Germans winning 3-0.

All told in the cadet teams Forster had 5 wins and 7 losses, Perry 3 wins and 7 losses, Nicola 6 wins and 5 losses and Sally 3 wins and 7 losses. In the junior boys' team event O'Driscoll had 9 wins and 5 losses, Oldfield 8 wins and 6 losses, Taylor 8 wins and 7 losses and Bevan, who only played in one match, 2 wins and no losses.

Cali Creanga of Romania was unbeaten in his 20 team sets but when it came for him to contest the mixed doubles semi-final his partner, Adriana Natasha, was left at the altar as Calin, like so many before him from Romania, had defected!

Most certainly not the best of championships for England leaving a great deal to be desired and much to be done before the next championships in Austria. But all credit to Jackie Bellinger, Jenny Heaton and Paul Day who gave all the encouragement they could but when it came to the crunch it is on the table matters with the onus on the players. On separate occasions Jackie and Paul, in their enthusiasm, were ordered from the team bench.

Although some of our players were found wanting, not so the Federation Luxembourgeoise de Tennis de Table who, not having mounted a major championship before, did exceptionally well and all prame to them for a job well done.

All players and officials were housed either at the Parc or the Ibis hotels, both top standard, but complaints are to hand re two in a bed and four in a room. The umpires were located elsewhere and England's quartet of Liz Wilson, Fred Groom, Bill Lavis and Eric Pentland seemed to fare better for breakfast than we at the Parc. At least they had cheese and jam to go with their rolls whereas we had only jam!

At the finals night party England's Debbie Toole became the recipient of a 'Fair Play' award and the Soviet Union were the winners of the Joola award as the Association with the best results, Alexander Beliakov accepting the trophy plus a cheque from Michael Bachtler.

In the men's divisions Burnley 'A' and Farnworth 'A' have pulled out to be replaced by Liverpool Business Houses 'B' and Mid-Lancs. The last are the only fallers in the women's section whilst Burnley 'A', Hyde and Lytham will no longer operate in the junior sphere.

But it is the veterans' brigade who have so dramatically increased to an extent that a new Div. 4 has had to be formulated. Out go Crewe from last season but the newcomers are nine in number namely:-

- Farnworth 'A'
- Hyndburn
- Manchester
- Oldham 'B'
- Rochdale 'A' and 'B'
- Trafford 'A'
- Wigan 'A'
- Wirral 'A'
- Wirral 'B'

Last season was a very successful one for Blackpool with the first team of Dave Bunting, Martin Ireland and Barry Crook winning Div. 2 (North) for only the third time in the town's history, the last being in 1957. Blackpool beat Trafford (7-3), Preston (9-1), Manchester (6-4) and drew with both Wirral and Southport losing only to Bolton (3-7). The points were so close between Blackpool and Trafford that the title was eventually decided by sets average, with the seasciders winning by one point!

Along with Blackpool as promoters to the top flight are the Div. 2 (South) champions, Macclesfield, taking over from the demotees, Oldham and Burnley.

Cadet Five Nations Tournament

Determination: Nicola’s recipe for success

NICOLA MIDDINGS proved to be the most successful player for England at the Cadet Five Nations Tournament held in the small Danish town of Saksobine from June 2nd to June 4th with the girl from Sutton Coldfield giving a fine display to help England gain runners up spot in the team event and excelling all expectations to reach the final of the singles.

It was in the Cadet Girls singles that the determined Midlander showed her strength of character to oust West Germany’s Ulrike Sallandt in the quarter final and the conqueror of Sally Marling also from West Germany Sandra Stroezel in the penultimate round. The final proved to be the closest of matches with the talented Swede Marie Persson using her consistent topspin play to good effect to beat Miss Middings who stuck to her task magnificently making the path most difficult for the eventual victor.

The tournament proved a fine event for the girls with the spirited quartet of Nicola Dean, Sally Marling, Nic Meddings and Clare Pengelly only beaten by the well organised West Germans to gain second place ahead of Sweden, Denmark and France with all the team winning vital matches under the excellent captaincy of Jackie Belinger.

Meanwhile on the singles scene all four girls gave excellent performances, with both Marling and Dean quarter finalists, the latter falling in a high class match to Persson the eventual winner, whilst Miss Pengelly exceeded all her expectations ousting top German Sallandt in the group matches, all girls can be pleased with their exploits.

The boys found life difficult against tough opposition with the quartet of Barry Forster, Alex Perry, Edward Hatley and Nick Bradfield in fourth place with the side well beaten by the top two nations West Germany and Sweden. It was a 9-1 reverse on both occasions but the splendid Forster beat Marcus Becker and Edward Hatley accounted for Swede Henrik Gustavsson. However it was to be Alex Perry who hit top form in the match against France beating both David Johnston and Remy Ludwig as England fell 6-4 with doubles success in harness with Forster and a win over Johnston by the latter the England wins. However, success did come against Denmark with both Perry and Forster unbeaten and Hatley adding the vital win whilst on the singles scene Forster proved the most successful player with a splendid win over West German Sascha Kastner but defeats by Gallier (France) and Gustavsson (Sweden) halted hopes of qualification.

A high class tournament and lessons to be learnt, on the girls’ side the ability of the Swedes and the West Germans to spin the ball proved vital whilst for the boys the sheer consistency of topspin play from both forehand and especially backhand overcame the faster play of the Englishmen.

STIGA JUNIOR INTERNATIONAL TOURNAMENT

Chris Oldfield used his power from both backhand and forehand to dominate proceedings in the boys singles event at Rishon le Zion in Israel from June 20th to June 22nd beating Grove clubmate Jonathan Taylor in the final after the top Israeli duo of Guy Basis and Gary Divald had been beaten in the semi-finals.

However, there was to be a shock in store for the Grove boys in the semi-final of the team event losing the tightest of matches to Israel’s top side Guy Basis, Gary Divald and Dov Portnoi with the latter playing the game of his life to beat the luckless Oldfield, the end of the road for the home team came at the hands of Falkenberg with the Swedes victorious by the margin of 5-4.

Meanwhile the Grove girls team of Sarah Creasey, Claire Marshall and Elizabeth Creasy excelled all expectations to clutch fourth place in the team event, beating the Israeli national side 5-3 with all three girls accounting for top Israeli girl Mihal Josefson and further vital success coming from Claire and Sarah. However the reverse result was the order of the day as Grove lost the fight for third and fourth place against Bergfarka from Sweden with the German girls from Sud West the well deserved champions.

A tournament of quality involving Swedes, West Germans, French, Israelis and England with a vast number of matches crammed into a day’s play with Belgium stars Jean Michel Sava and Thierry Cabrera giving a splendid exhibition on the last day for the happy but thoroughly exhausted English teams. A three day rest and then on to the Israeli Youth Open but the Israeli idea of rest was to take all the teams out for the weekend on a 600 mile coach trip to Eilat on the Red Sea via Jerusalem, the Dead Sea and Masada with an overnight stay in the resort of Eilat where winter apparently does not exist.

ISRAELI YOUTH OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

A brilliant display by England’s Jonathan Taylor in beating both Polish stars Skierski and Kazcmarek to give success at the semi-final stage was the highlight of the Israeli Youth Open held at Rishan le Zion near Tel Aviv from June 26th to June 28th.

The semi-final team event against Poland proved to be a clash with the vicious backhand topspin of Skierski beating the hard working Oldfield followed by Taylor recovering from an opening set defeat to beat Kazcmarek in a thriller. A further setback as the doubles went to Poland leaving England at the point of no return but it was Taylor who rose to the occasion to beat Kazcmarek in the best of three match of the tournament with the Englishman ahead on only one occasion in the third set and that at the most important point 22-20. The scores level Oldfield dominated the occasion and in a critical third set the Englishman exploited the weakness of Kazcmarek wide to the left handers forehand to clutch success and a final spot against Hungary.

England proved to be the only Western European nation to reach the final stages as Poland faced Hungary in the girls match, with the former successful, and England beat Hungary 3-1 with only the doubles going astray for Oldfield and Taylor, with Taylor beating both Bergfarka and Lavsko for victory. It was certainly a tough task for the English boys playing thirty minutes after their mammoth semi-final with Taylor and Oldfield both exhausted after their outstanding efforts, a victory they thoroughly deserved.

Meanwhile there was a splendid performance in the boys doubles event from Leigh Jeffries and Garry Knights who accounted for top Israeli’s Basis and Divald before losing to eventual winners and final conquerors of Oldfield and Taylor the Polish duo of Skierski and Kazcmarek. In similar vein Jeffries and Knights both reached the latter stages of the boys’ singles with the former losing to Darv of Hungary in the quarter finals and the latter to Marling of Israel at the same stage.

The singles event was to prove the semi-final of revenge as by the narrowest of margins Taylor fell to the runner up Kazcmarek and Oldfield in a match of high quality lost to the eventual winner Skierski.

However all four boys mounted the final rostrum and gained rewards for their efforts with Oldfield and Taylor winners in the team event and losing semi-finalists in the boys’ singles, whilst reward came to Knights and Jeffries being the boys doubles bronze medallists.
The strength of the Eastern Europeans from Poland and Hungary shone through in the girls events alongside the thoroughly efficient West Germans but there was success for the Grove trio of Claire Marshall, Sarah Creasey and Liz Creasey beating the Danish girls of Roskilde 3-1 before losing to Israel with Sabil Hose the most impressive Israeli.

In the singles event Claire Marshall proved the most successful beating Pedersen of Denmark before losing to the defensive skills of French girl Pougam whilst the eventual winner Rakos of Hungary ended Liz Creasey’s progress and Johnson of Sweden defeated Sarah Creasey.

However, success for England, a vast number of matches played and all players stuck to their task in adverse conditions, a tour which will be remembered always.

SPANISH YOUTH OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

The England duo of Grant Solder and Andrew Eden dominated proceedings in the Spanish Youth Open held at Sar Cugat near Barcelona from July 14th to July 16th 1989.

The team event and the boys singles title returned to the green and pleasant land as the English were not to be denied. However it was a shaky start for England beating Spain II 3-2 thanks to an unbeaten display by Andrew Eden but a comfortable 3-0 win against Portugal saw England face tough opposition in the semi finals against Israel, to the eternal credit of Eden and Solder the boys played tactically well and romped home 3-0 to face tough opponents Spain in a well staged final. However the team spirit of the English boys shone through and Eden was again unbeaten in a 3-1 success thoroughly deserved by the hard working pair.

In similar vein young Daryl Sneyd coached the cadet girl duo of Sara Williams and Nicola Meddings to first place in the Cadet Girls Team Event with Spain providing the toughest hurdle as Miss Meddings completed the event unbeaten in a crucial 3-1 win. Unfortunately the Cadet Boys Team lost narrowly to Spain with David Baker and Ray Powell fighting all the way whilst the defensive skills of top Spanish girl Panadero proved to be the stumbling block for Ellen Meddings and Alison Gower against Spain.

Eden and Solder continued their domination in the boys singles with Eden losing his only singles match of the weekend at the expense of Solder in the boys final with Divadi of Israel and Pons of Spain the vanquished in the semi-finals. Meanwhile the runners up spot was secured in a well staged final. However the team were not to be denied.

Les Constable - obituary

IT WAS with deep sadness that I learned of the death of Les Constable, who collapsed while on holiday at Hastings in July, at the age of 73.

Les was the father of table tennis in Cambridge, for he was one of the founder members of the Cambridge League back in 1936 and he has been on the committee ever since. He has served in every capacity over the years, including coaching, umpiring and on the evening prior to leaving for his holiday, he was re-elected General Secretary for the Cambridge League for yet another year. He was also President of the Cambridgeshire Association, a founder of the South East Midlands League and a Vice-President of the English Table Tennis Association.

It is not surprising, in view of the tremendous amount of work that he has given to the sport, that he received an award from the Sports Council. Les was also a great cricket enthusiast and I have spent many happy hours with him at Fenners, the home of Cambridge University Cricket Club, where he used to relate tales of all the great players from between the wars.

It was perhaps inevitable that Les died after a game of table tennis in the town where the sport has its offices.

He was a widower and he leaves five children and eight grandchildren.

Additional Information

The Chinese player, Xu Zengcai has had a meteoric rise to No.11, which, according to ETFA Chairman, John Prean is well deserved. John is astonished at the low rating of Chen Zhbin at No.33 who was China's most impressive player on their tour of England and has since won two big Opens in addition to the Scandinavian and Yugoslav a little earlier. John regards him as several points better than the former World Champion, Jiang who appears at No.4, despite being a shadow of his former self at Dortmund. The highest placed defender is the North Korean, Li Gun Sang, whose No.18 place in no way flatters him.

I CAN honestly say that having the honour to have umpired at these championships held at the Rivermead Leisure Centre at Reading on Saturday 5th and Sunday 6th August 1989 was the most exciting, memorable and happiest event in my table tennis career.

The records will show that the North West Region took many of the awards. What they will not record is the tremendous abilities of scores of sportsmen and sportswomen from all over the British Isles to overcome extremely debilitating illnesses and to play table tennis at a standard unmatched by most able bodied athletes.

What the records will also fail to depict is the warmth, idolatry and indeed love that the North West Region hold for our National Coaches Donald and Jill Parker. It was no coincidence that this Region had unsurped the Southern Region from prominence. It was down to the unselfish and dedicated help of these two hardworking people.
Mashed Swedes!
by DONALD PARKER

THE ENGLISH team could not have wished for a better start to their first season for four years in the European Super League.

Carl Prean, Alan Cooke, Lisa Lomas, Alison Gordon and team captain Donald Parker, travelled to Vellinge in the very south of Sweden to start this season's campaign. Our hosts from Vellinge were quite superb with nothing being too much trouble for them.

As is now the prerogative of the home team, the match was played on two tables. However, it still lasted well over two hours. On the morning of the match, Alan Cooke complained of a shoulder injury, the same one that prevented him competing in February's Leeds Masters. To their credit the organisers, with a little persuasion from myself, arranged physiotherapy and whilst Alan was certainly not 100% fit he was able to compete in the match.

The two men's singles were the first matches on and the new Swedish star Peter Karlsson found Carl Prean in excellent form and on the night, simply too good. Alan fought hard against Erik Lindh and under the circumstances put up a creditable performance losing two close games.

Lisa Lomas: Amazing fightback in third set against Gustafsson.

The next two games on were crucial, the men's doubles and women's singles. With Lindh and Karlsson playing for the same Swedish club team Falkenberg, plus being a left hand, right hand combination, we anticipated a very tough game. Not to be, Alan and Carl playing one of their best games in their comparatively short career together won very convincingly.

Carl Prean: Two vital singles wins to ensure England victory.

However, a totally different situation had developed on the next table. On paper, our best chance in any of the games was the women's singles with the Swedes fielding Helene Gustafsson found herself 14-3 up in the third against Lisa Lomas. Quite remarkably Lisa recovered to win 22-20 and we found ourselves 3-1 in the lead needing one more win for victory.

This victory came in the very next game, the mixed doubles, with Carl Prean continuing his excellent play very ably assisted by Alison Gordon against Lindh and Gustafsson. With the match now secure there seemed little point in risking further injury to Alan's shoulder and so his game against Peter Karlsson was conceded.

Carl finished the match off in fine style, beating Europe's No. 5 Erik Lindh very easily. On his last trip to Sweden for a European League match four years ago, Carl was unbeaten in singles against Waldner and Bengtsson. This year, he won both his singles and doubles, a quite remarkable achievement and hopefully a good omen for the European Championships this season in Gothenburg.

The Rivermead Leisure Centre proved to be a really excellent venue with the staff exceptionally friendly and helpful. However, even this venue paled into the background compared to the hospitality of the Caversham Hotel under their manager Robin Winter. The barbecue next to the Thames was an experience beyond description. The dedication and helpfulness of all the Caversham staff went far, far beyond the call of duty. Throughout the tournament, directors of the Grand Metropolitan were in attendance and they must surely gain great personal satisfaction from the pleasure they gave to so many.

Chairman of the British Sports Association for the Disabled, Philip Lewis, himself a local Table Tennis player, supported a very strong and excellent official team headed by the Championships director John Jenkins. John Freeman did an excellent job as Tournament Referee backed up by Bob Morley and Bob Walton and many others.

Scores of young boys and girls from the Reading schools, organised by Peter Charters, put the finishing touch as ball boys and girls to one of the most successful days in B.S.A.D. history.

Of the tournament itself, the attitude and spirit of the event was encapsulated by Birmingham's Michael Swann, who received the award of 'player of the tournament'. He also won the Group 4 mens singles title. Bronze winner in 1988, Polio victim Fran Pratt at last secured Gold with a victory over Scotland's Sharon Morley.

Another top performance came from a member of the famous Heaps Table Tennis family, Tim Heaps, who has only one arm, was a deserving winner of group 5, emulate a bodied game of Simon, Judy and Nick.

LONG-ESTABLISHED players now seem to be slipping down and making way for a relatively new generation. Alan Cooke has retained his rightful position at No. 1 in the country and really did have to earn his national title in Portsmouth. Carl Prean is now challenging strongly for the No. 2 position and this was reflected in his 3-1 first ever victory over Desmond Douglas. Although Douglas should not yet be written off as a has-been, his 100% British League record was truly smashed last season with him losing four games. This is also an indication of the rising strength of the Leeds British League which attracted Chen Xinhua, two Canadians, two Belgians, two Jamaicans and a New Zealander.

Even the mighty Chen slips out of the world rankings, down from No. 7 and last season alone he lost games to Des Douglas, Carl Prean and Thierry Cabrera in various events. One defensive player still on the way up is the entertaining Matthew Syed. He performed exceedingly well last season with victories over Jacques Secretin and the French No. 1 Jean-Phillipe Gatien. At the Leeds National Championships he recorded a remarkable 18, 12, 12, 4 victory over Nicky Mason and trailed at only 10-13 in the fifth against Alan Cooke before being overcome with severe cramp. He has plenty of years ahead to perfect his defence and should please many crowds. He is frequently the talking point of domestic tournaments and has proved the rumour untrue that he will go to the Delhi World Championships to interpret the menus!

Skye Andrew has had a fairly quiet season with the exception of success at the Dortmund World Championships where he played well. He fell to Steve Dorking at the Essex 3-star last season and made little impact on the National Championships this time, only taking the Mens Doubles title again in partnership with Nicky Mason. Jimmy Stokes has had an indifferent Leeds British League season finishing with only 45% as he no longer plays full time. He ended the season on a high with an unexpected victory over Skyet Andrew at Portsmouth. Not all of his 55% losses have been too disappointing as he did well to lead Jean-Michel Saive into his victory in the British League, but lost 6 consecutive points. Saive continues to improve as the pride of Belgium and inflicted 2 of Douglas’ losses.

John Souter has had a quiet season except for winning the Middlesex 3-star, and he was surprisingly absent from the National Championships. Souter is now being overtaken by Derbyshire’s Bradley Billington. Brad and Sean Gibson are a powerful pair working their way up although the latter suffered a setback with a shoulder injury last season. However Sean is 21 again to Matthew Syed in a hurry! Before long I hope players will recognise the importance of some practice against defence. Nicky now needs stronger opponents to improve his position further and I hope the Leeds British League (will provide such competition before he thinks about moving abroad.

Michael O’Driscoll is a relative newcomer to the top notch who reached No. 8 in the mens national rankings after reaching the final of the Middlesex 3-star with most stronger opponents away at the French Open. He does have great talent and I look forward to the time when he has his ‘A’ levels behind him. Another potential star is and Yorkshire younger is of course Chris Oldfield who gave our National Champion the fright of his life as he recovered from 12-18 down in the fifth to deuce. He provided ‘Cookies’ closest contest at the National Championships as he just lost out 22-24. He has in the past beaten Top 20 players and I feel a season in the Leeds British League Premier Division should make or break him.

John Holland has done equally well and his greatest achievement must have been taking the National Mixed Doubles title in partnership with Julie Billington. They removed both the top two seeds on their way to victory to earn their title. Mason and Andrew paired with Alison Gordon and Fiona Elliot respectively must have wondered what went wrong! Other relative newcomers to watch is likely to include Jonathan Taylor, Neil Bevan, Grant Sender, Tommy Cutler, Neil Pickard, Leigh Jeffries, Scott Greenbrook and Paul Carter.

The situation among the ladies rankings seems to have changed little. Alison Gordon competed quite well against the men in the Leeds British League which is the sort of competition she needs to improve! Furthermore, but she lost her National title to Lisa Lomas who seems to be making a revival despite marriage. BBC Breakfast Time showed part of her extraordinary effort at Portsmouth in the Ladies final. Fiona Elliot stays among the Top 3 too and is followed by Andrea Holt as Joy Dean starts the slippery slope downwards. Andrea does not appear to have reached her full potential yet, but she does need to be more consistent in her results. She had what appeared to me a disappointing season in the Leeds British League where she lost convincing to Helen Lower. Jill Harris stays near to the top and will take some removing, nevertheless a great talent lies with Julie Billington who represents a danger to many of our leading players.

Among our junior boys Ormskirk’s Andrew Eden performed well in the Leeds British League leading Liverpool to victory in Division 3 North. He still needs to be tested on the senior circuit but he has a surprise win over Chris Oldfield to his credit. Another potential threat to the seniors is Jonathan Taylor who is now emerging on the senior circuit and he showed great potential last season. Debbie Toole is a good young player still to be tested by the senior ladies. At No. 2 in the juniors she just squeezes into the Ladies Top 20 and should move higher before too long. In short we have many up-and-coming players to maintain our campaign in the ‘Super Division’ of the European League. It will not doubt prove tough but we are no longer out of our depth as we increase our strength in depth. I have no doubt that the world rankings realistically reflect our players in the not too distant future — Des Douglas at No. 22 and Alan Cooke at No. 42 does not seem quite right somehow!

Similarly in the European rankings Des is at No. 13 while Alan is shown at 18. I guess they’ll catch up with us sooner or later...

Johnny Stokes: Ended season on high note with victory over Skyet Andrew at Portsmouth in the Leeds National Championships. He went on course for a Top 10 position. Nicky Mason continues with occasional brilliant performances including a victory over the Soviet No. 1 in the USSR Open. He stretched Des Douglas to 23-25 in the third at his second attempt in the Leeds British League but has at times been equally disappointing — although I cannot see him losing 4-
A NEW-LOOK Premier Division has now been formed and once again the transfer market has been busy during the summer months. Sadly there is a mixture of good news and bad. First of all I welcome the return of Alan Cooke who, with Des Douglas, makes Grove I look invincible. Not only do Grove now have the No.1 and No.3 men, but also the No.1 and No.3 women in the country. Alison Gordon and Fiona Elliott are listed under Grove's second team in Division I North. The late withdrawal of League Champions Ashford I is the bad news. It seems all the League Champions withdraw after a year or two of being at the top. I was looking forward to seeing Jean-Michel Saive going into battle with Des Douglas and Alan Cooke. Maybe someone else will try to sign up the Belgian star...? Ellenborough, former League Champions, make a return to the Premier after many years absent (alias C.L. Ruislip) and produce one of the strongest teams from the London area although only Nigel Tyler continues from last season's Ruislip team with 3 recruits added. Another new strong London-based team is of course Dulwich Rams led by Glenn Baker and Phil Bradbury. Ormesby are little changed and could pose some threat to the favourites Grove if only they could turn out at full strength (i.e. with both Canadians). Michael O'Driscoll or John Broe provide a strong No.4 for Ormesby this season. Nicky Mason returns to Bath who once again look like the 'bronze medal' candidates—Matthew Syed will continue to entertain for them and his games in particular against Grove and Ormesby should prove pretty lively and memorable. Kettler Sport should survive their first season in the Premier providing they do not slip up against either of the relegation contenders. Butterfly Cardiff look set to struggle in the absence of the Thomas's and the Australians they were rumoured to be recruiting a few months back. Plymouth Bulldogs, who were relegated to Division 2 South last year, re-emerge as Armada 400 for what is likely to be a temporary visit to the Premier. They have only added Paul Whiting in their bid to avoid the plunge once again. In short the Premier looks fairly predictable now, but in-season recruitment could change a great deal. As far as I can see there are still a few leading players who have not yet been signed up (at the time of writing): Steve Dorking, Jimmy Stokes and Andy Wellman to name but three.

Favourites to lead Division I South appear at present to be Ashford and Horsham Dolphins—from the registrations seen so far. Team Peniel (formerly Ramlosa) may have the strongest No. 1 in the division having recruited John Holland but the rest of the team will need to excel if they are to make any significant impact. Rejects introduce Scott Greenbrook to their first team to give him the opportunity of gaining a top 100 position. The others could struggle if they do not get into regular practice although I expect Percy Collins to cause one or two upsets — I doubt if Max Crimmins relishes the prospect of playing him again! TSP Larkhall have a large squad which should survive and I hear that Dave Harding has been promoted to Press Officer. Chelmsford OC's, having lost a player, won't find things easy and Colley Toyota (formerly Doleg Carpets) will need to find some good form in order to survive. Britannia Anglia and Hart Langley are newcomers to this division and are quite likely to inflict some damage and perhaps take third place. Relegation in this division is impossible to forecast accurately as the bottom half of the division is expected to be very close.

Division I North looks very difficult to forecast too. The ladies of Grove II could upset quite a few of the men and with Jonathan Taylor they have potential to do well. Will Well Connected men swear? Led by John Burleton and Graeme McUm, Well Connected Menswear should do fairly well but should not find their campaign as easy as they did last season. West Warwickshire appear to have a solid side as do MBS St Neots. At a guess I suspect Baye City and City of Leeds should survive but Han Construction and Ruston Marconi Lincoln will probably find it tough going.

Further down the League there is quite a number of new teams entering and once again a new division has been added. This season the new teams we welcome to the League include Newport Pagnell, Harlesden PCC, Brentwood, Humberside Andro, SEE South West Durham, Tigers (Telford), Huddersfield Concord, Thornes (Worcester area), Concord Flash and last but not least Bude Surfers (formerly White Hart Launceston II).

Provisional Premier Line up:

Grove: Alan Cooke, Des Douglas, Brad Billing, Chris Oldfield and Sean Gibson

Ormesby: Chen Xinhu, Joe Ng, Horatio Pintea, John Broe & Michael O'Driscoll

Bath: Nicky Mason, Matthew Syed, John Souter, Kevin Satchell & Chris Rogers

1988/89 Final Leading Averages:

Premier: Chen Xinhu, Ormesby 26/27 (96.8%), Des Douglas, Bath 22/26 (84.6), Matthew Syed, Bath 23/28 (82.1), Sean Gibson, Grove 13/16 (81.2), Graham Sandley, Grove 16/20 (80), Glenn Baker, Asford 17/22 (77.3), additionally Jean-Michel Saive was unbeaten but played insufficient to qualify for the averages.

1 South: Nigel Tyler, C.L. Ruislip 23/24 (95.8), Andy Wellman, Ruislip 23/26 (95), Richard Jermy, Dagenham 13/16 (81.2), Andy Cunningham, Ruislip 19/24 (79.2) and John Burleton, Dagenham 19/26 (73.1).

1 North: John Hilton, Kettler 23/26 (88.4), Chris Oldfield, Grove 17/20 (85), John Kitchener, Britannia 23/28 (82.1), Phil Logsdon, Britannia 20/26 (76.9) and Steve Slater, Kettler 20/28 (71.4).
The Leeds County Championships

by DOUG MOSS

THE NUMBER of teams has again increased — this season by 5 — making a total of 181! With 62 teams in the Senior Section and 60 in the Veterans it provided the possibility to introduce the minimum number of two 3rd Divisions with 6 teams in each. The County representatives at the Annual Conference voted overwhelmingly for the 3rd Divisions rather than have some Divisions with 9, or possibly 10 teams. With 59 teams in the Junior Section this arrangement was not possible and therefore three 2nd Divisions have 9 teams.

A proposal by Devon Association that Senior Premier Division teams should include 2 ladies received very good support and a change of Rule was approved. Matches would be played on the same basis as the Junior Premier Division. As entries for 89/90 had already been made on the basis of only 1 lady per team it was decided the change should take effect for the 90/91 season.

There were also proposals for separate Sections for men and women at Senior and Junior level. After a full discussion it was considered that, with teams playing in different Divisions and possibly at different levels, there could be — more travel and increased costs more Officials needed to run County teams some Counties short of ladies and reluctant to enter the likelihood that it would result in less ladies playing in the Championships.

The proposals were withdrawn and it was decided that a Working Party be formed to examine the question of the participation of ladies in the Championships.

Crossing the Solent by Hovercraft

by ALF PEPPARD

AT THE kind invitation of our Chairman and Mrs. Prean, I took a day off back in the summer to sample the delights of crossing the Solent by Hovercraft with the thought in mind of a second Radio interview with John Prean.

Accompanied by my wife Gladys and a BBC tape recorder we were made most welcome and the final results were one 11½ minute interview with John and 6½ minutes with Carl.

In conversation with John I was left with no doubt that our sport in general is indeed on the upward trend, John Prean's resilience hard work and optimism for the future are part of his character that he has unflinchingly thrown himself into 100% - restoring confidence and credibility back into table tennis and perhaps only those that work closely with him and others that know him, can only too well appreciate.

Of course he has not done it all by himself, no individual can run an Association the size of the ETTA entirely on their own, but John's choice of Officials who surround him has it appears unquestionably paid off — meanwhile vivid memories of darker days of "not so long ago", must not be forgotten.

Heading back to the mainland with Ryde and the Isle of Wight gradually receding into the distance I suddenly felt that John Prean just might lose the odd occasional table tennis battle or two now and again, but having said that I am convinced that he will win most of his table tennis wars.

PS. Both BBC interviews will be given extensive coverage over the air — locally and also nationally.

* 2nd consecutive season
MIDDLESEX ARE the champions of the Leeds County Championships but Derbyshire are the strongest team. That was the conclusion at Burton-on-Trent on May 13 when Derbyshire became the first holders of the Maurice Goldstein trophy, taking a 5-3 lead over Derbyshire, but ending 5-4 to the home side as Nigel Tyler used his experience to come from behind to win a closely fought battle against John Holland.

Alan Cooke's world-class form just tipped the balance, or so it seemed to me. Had Cooke and Bradley Billington both been available earlier in the season it appears they would have won the championship again, but the addition of the new England mixed doubles champions Holland and Julie Billington to the Derbyshire teams makes them an extremely formidable combination.

About 120 fans (not bad these days for a county match), watched Middlesex surge through to take a 2-0 lead as John Souter showed us again some of his best shots to beat Bradley Billington 21-19, 14-21, 21-17.

You can never rule out Graham Sandley. He came forward to lose the first against John Holland but recovered stylishly to turn the tables 21-13, 21-10. Holland's flashing backhands are the feature of his game and surely contributed to his magnificent win at Portsmouth with Miss Billington. So, Middlesex tails were up 2-0 to the visitors.

Then Alan Cooke began to impose his authority although he was way down the creek without a paddle in the second against Tyler. The Welsh No.1 was sailing home looking to win the second at 19-13 up, but Cooke turned up the heat so skilfully that Tyler could hardly believe he had been beaten 21-17, 23-21.

The mixed doubles that followed saw Lesley Keast at her best applying fierce top spin that at times confused the flat-hitting Julia Billington, but Derbyshire came through 21-15 in the third. Derbyshire then played their trump card as Hollington's doubles skills were apparent — in the mens doubles Holland and Billington defied Tyler and Souter to win in three games.

A women's singles win by Lesley Keast over Julie Billington was cancelled out by another key win by Derbyshire as Billington halted Sandley in yet another three-setter. Cooke clinched the Derbyshire success when he cut out the frills to beat Sandley 21-16, 21-18.

In the last game it seemed as if young Holland was about to reach even higher in the England list as he opposed Tyler, but the vastly experienced "Welshman" finally scorched home 21-19 again in the third. Six of the nine games went to three!

The organisation at Burton in the hands of such capable men as Terry Gadsby and referee Tony Chatwin was excellent and appreciated by myself as the only journalist present — it was a long way on a day excursion but the trip was well worthwhile although the chances of being mugged at Birmingham New Street by hooligans returning from Crystal Palace were high.

Cooke imposes authority on the match.

'LENTEC' Ranking Scheme 1989/90

The 'Lenton'/ETTA Computer Ranking Scheme enters its 9th season with a few, but rather important, changes from the system operated last year.

The most significant change is that regarding 'group results'. In 1989/90 the qualifying rounds of domestic knockout events, with the exception of the National Championships, will not count for computer ranking points. The omission of these results will eliminate a considerable amount of computer input and raise the accuracy levels on the remainder. With over 20,000 individual results being fed in each season even an accuracy level of 99% will generate 200 errors and it is these we are seeking to remove. So the logic behind the move is to have an accurate list with less results, rather than seek to include everything.

LENTEC COMPUTER RANKING SYSTEM

The 'Lenton'/ETTA Computer Ranking Scheme has again been highly successful and will continue for 1989/90, its ninth season. For the start of the season, all points gained at the end of the 1988/89 season have been divided by two, except those for the cadets which have been divided by 3.

England’s Women take on West Germany

ENGLAND take on West Germany in the first-ever International Series of Women’s table tennis matches to be staged in this country, from Tuesday 3rd to Thursday, 5th October, 1989.

National No. 1, Alison Gordon, heads the England team for the three-match tour which starts at the Wulfrun Hall, Wolverhampton on Tuesday 3rd October, and moves on consecutive evenings to the Peniel Academy, Brentwood, Essex on Wednesday, 4th October, and the Cotswold Sports Centre, on Thursday, 5th October.

During the series Alison Gordon (Reading) will be looking to consolidate her winning form over leading German, Olga Nemes, the current Europe No. 2 and Top 12 Champion whom she beat at this year’s World Championships in Dortmund.

National Champion, Lisa Lomas (Dunstable), England No. 3, Fiona Elliot (Wolverhampton) and England No. 4 Andrea Holt (Rambottom) complete the home side.

The captain of the England Women’s team, former European Champion, Jill Hammersley-Parker, is enthusiastic about the series and said, “With Olga Nemes, West Germany are one of the best teams in Europe. Our girls are looking forward to scoring some important victories in this test series, and I feel confident that this will be the forerunner of other tours by top international teams in the future.”

Derbyshire Women’s Coaching Rally

by JACKIE BILLINGTON

DERBYSHIRE held its first Women’s Rally day on Sunday 2nd July at the Uttridge Centre, Burton-on-Trent. Women’s officer ‘myself’ was the coach for the day, assisted by Terry Gadsby, Jeff Farmer and player/coach Julie Billington.

There was a wide range of ages (some players had not been since their junior days). The stiga robot was very popular with the younger players but eyed with scepticism by the more mature ladies. Some light relief at lunch time after a hard morning’s work, was had by watching Secretin, Pukart exhibition on video.

Coaching, demonstrations, discussions and match play were the order of the day.

Everyone appeared to enjoy the day and all worked extremely hard (judging by the way some hobbled home).

The intention here in Derbyshire is to continue to promote women in table tennis throughout the coming season and make ourselves self supporting. If any lady in the county failed to receive an invitation and is interested in taking part please give me a call on 0246 2718609.

My thanks to all the willing helpers for the preparation of the room and afterwards for all the clearing up.

A New President for Ladies League

by VALERIE CLACK

THE 11TH A.G.M. of the C.L.T.T.L. was held at Leamington Spar on Sunday 23rd April 1989, at which Josie Ransome was elected to become President.

A 100% attendance of representatives from Member Leagues got the meeting off to a good start.

Secretary Mary Rose in her report said it had been a good year, with very few problems and she had received enquiries from new Leagues that may join next year. Several League Reps reported the possibility of a second team next season. The League’s rules were looked at and brought up to date with one major change. A majority voted to replace 2 points for a win and 1 for a draw with the for and against system.

League Positions for 1988/89
Division 1
Winners: Birmingham. Individual averages - Sue Cuthbertson
R.U.: Worcester
Division 2
Winners: Swindon. Individual averages - Brenda Lea
R.U.: Oxford
The Officials for 1989/90 were re-elected on block: Chairman: Valerie Clack, Secretary: Mary Rose, Treasurer: Linda Reid, Committee Members: Peggy Mytton and Philip Paine.

The Annual Closed Tournament took place immediately after the A.G.M. An increased entry in both Senior and Junior sections, reflects the National interest in Women’s Table Tennis. The excellent organising of Referee, Brian Lloyd and his assistant Barry Russ, plus good playing conditions with Lounge and Refreshment facilities helped to make the tournament a success.

“WOMEN IN TABLE TENNIS” — Logo Competition Winners

A WIDE range of creative ideas were submitted and these were displayed at Burton and Bletchley during the Leeds Women’s British League. Congratulations are due to M. Cox (Northants) and I. Edwards (Cumbria) whose entries were considered to be the best. Both ladies will receive a Butterfly sweatshirt as their prize. Enthusiasts are invited to use these logos to promote Women in Table Tennis at local level.

M. COX (Northants)

I EDWARDS (Cumbria)
CONSIDERED BY many as a “Magic Launch” in Burton, the finals of the Leeds Women’s British League reached new heights in the level of play and organisational excellence when on 27/28th May, 1989, this, the climax of the Women in Table Tennis Campaign for the 1988/89 season, came to the super venue of Bletchley Leisure Centre, Milton Keynes.

Over 100 women, including all the top players in England, Scotland and Wales as well as two French internationals, representing 24 teams from all parts of the United Kingdom, resumed play from Burton to contest the divisional placings and the £1,000 prize fund. The excitement of the whole weekend was brought to a head when, in the final set, Lorraine Saunot overcame strong resistance from Andrea Holt to seal victory for the Anglo/French London based Linda Farrow team over World of Sport from Chesterfield.

The winners of Division II were Fellows Cranleigh, whilst Sunderland Echo took the Third Division title.

The Mayor of Milton Keynes, Councillor Roger Bristow and the Chairman of the English Table Tennis Association, John Prean, were present for an extremely attractive Opening Ceremony which saw the teams marching into the arena with their team banners to the music of “Magic Ball”.

Wendy Cunningham, the Public Relations Manager for the Leeds Permanent Building Society was present on Sunday to make the presentations to the teams together with Councillor Maurice Howell, Chairman of the Milton Keynes Recreation Committee. John Prean presented the Leeds Silver Salver and bouquet to Andrea Holt, voted by the teams to be the “Woman of the Weekend”, whilst Jill Parker presented posies to Guestling of Hastings, selected as the “Team of the Weekend”.

Most of the teams took advantage of the excellent accommodation at the Luton Crest Hotel on Saturday night where friendships continued and the convivial atmosphere heightened. After play concluded on Sunday a short Women’s British League Conference was held as a forum for comments and opinions from the players, coaches and supporters to be considered for next year’s league — can it become even better? It will certainly be bigger because already several new teams have applied to enter next year, but the standard set at Bletchley could take some beating!

AVON

ALTHOUGH TABLE Tennis is the main topic of this magazine a few notes are included of an Out of Season socialising between our more westerly country friends — Devon. More of that later, so let's get the T.T. news in over the past few months.

On the honours list go Andy Creed and Paul Lewis for winning the Bristol 2 Star Doubles over our good friends the Moore brothers; also to David Hadley (now Seniors) for winning the Junior Class 2 at the Bristol 2 Star. Joining David in the Seniors is Steve Bettison who finished ranked 20.

The Junior boys themselves deserve a mention for reaching the Semi-Finals of the Carter Cup going down 5-3 to Crawley. Jon Horne reached the U12-S-F of the Bristol 2 Star while Graham Long was invited to the England U12 training camp as part of the National Squad. Well done Graham and Jon! On the cadet front we have Ewan Finlayson 37, Gareth Davies (a lad of man-sized talents) 40, Richard Johnson 40, Brian Reeves, Paul Lewis, Gary Lloyd, Paul Etherington, Dave Price in the Bath League.

WESTERN COUNTIES

It was Avon's turn to host the Western Counties, held at the Horfield Sports Centre. In the Junior Event Avon's David Hadley won the Singles beating fellow county player Hywel Green and, with the inclusion of Ian Johnson won the Team Event for Avon. Sorry girls but at the moment no-one seems to know who won the Junior title.

From the Senior side, Cornwall were unable to attend as were Gloucester, leaving Devon to clean sweep the board with Gary Wilson beating Gary Lambert for the Mens Singles and Elaine Short for the Ladies title.

LEEDS BRITISH LEAGUE

With the Leeds British League about to get under way and probably would have by the time this is printed, last year's champions Batwick Tyres I and II had mixed honours. Our first team finished third while our 2nd team won Div 3 West. Bathwick are now entering a 3rd team into the league. We certainly would like to wish all our teams well for the coming season especially the new side and new manager Dave Bull. Although the first team have lost Des (and his superior playing skills) to Grove we welcome back Nicky Mason and the new signing of John Soutter. With Matthew Syed and Nicky up front we're bound to score.

On a saddened note for Bathwick, Paul Hewitt, who has been involved since the start of the club some 8 years ago, has decided to call it a day. Thank you Paul for all your effort and hard work throughout those years, may you still keep swinging that bat! With him takes Video Nasty, Mr Mervyn George, thanks Meri — see you at Redwood Lodge for a knock-up. On the bright side — stepping into Paul's job, another Paul — Mr Paul Osborne, in charge of the complete Bath outfit Mr Bob House.

Now to the socialising scene. Someone suggested a football match and the challenge was immediately taken up by the Devon boys (there's another report soon, about football, see K. Setchell). 11 T.Ters from Bristol area to take on 11 T.Ters from Devon. 2 legs with the 1st in Devon. Stars such as K. Setchell, A. Creed, P. Whiting, P. Giles, M. Short, P. Lewis and K. Birdell were on display on a rather dreadful day. We all changed — White top here and there, T.T. shorts, T.T. shoes as football boots on the odd player, when exit the Devon boys! We all stood open-mouthed, speechless in fact, as out stepped this immaculate looking football team all in impeccable blue/white stripes, numbers, the lot — even their jockstraps were ironed. Who's taking this serious, it's only a friendly game-10 minutes gone Bristol 3-0 up, half time 4-2 and final score 5-2. The Devon boys were treated out for the evening — super! Return match, 2nd leg — We're at home now and we've got a kit. Rumour has it that when Gary Wilson heard the score from here first leg, he wouldn't go in goal for the 2nd. The Bristol boys won 4-2 and eventually won the Skittles match 3-2 despite fearsome barring across the Devon Fraternity. One thing's for certain and that is — it was a fantastic time had by all (wives and girlfriends). It will now be an annual event, and all because of the superb efforts of Bernard Nash in handling the arrangements. The new secretary is Steve Bettison.

The Bristol 2 Star Doubles over our good friends the Moore brothers; also to David Hadley (now Seniors) for winning the Junior Class 2 at the Bristol 2 Star. Joining David in the Seniors is Steve Bettison who finished ranked 20.

In the quarter final we had a home tie with Willesden and were fortunate to be sponsored by a local newspaper — which meant we obtained excellent coverage and good support (over fifty in attendance) and I believe Willesden were quite impressed; we even produced a programme for the occasion — a copy enclosed together with the newspaper report.

CUMBRIA

Gordon Brown

EXPENSE is catching up with Cumbria County Association. At their May meeting, the management committee decided to reduce hospitality at county home matches to sandwiches only.

At the time of writing, however, there was hope that a £10 sponsor could be found in order to maintain the excellent refreshments Cumbria have always provided for visiting counties.

With treasurer Richard Johnstone reporting only £17.70 in hand and a rise in county match expenses for 1988-89 by £163.30p, and county officials still waiting for promised support from all those in the team, the county association at £5 per head, had made a £39.83p loss on the Cumbria Closed tournament at Kendal and because of expense had decided to withdraw the junior team from this season's County Championship.

This was despite a generous £89.67p sponsorship of clothing for the juniors by Copeland Fluid Power, of Frizington.

Treasurer Richard Johnstone said travelling for both sides had totalised £444.40.

Sponsorship for some senior county games this season had been promised by Whitehaven garage owner Ron Batty, a former county player.

The annual general meeting agreed on a scheme for inviting supporters to become patrons of the county association at £5 per head. Members of unaffiliated clubs may join the county association as individuals at £3 per head.

Former secretary Ron Rigg, present auditor, has been invited to become a vice-president. President is Lord Lonsdale. Chairman is Bob Gaie, vice-chairman and national council representative Miss Clarice Rose and secretary Colin Taylor.

Match secretary is John Taylor with Colin as his assistant.

Cumbria lost £39.83p on their closed tournament last season compared to an £11.31 loss the previous term.

Miss Clarice Rose has been re-elected as Cumbria's national councillor for season 1989-90.

AT THE end of last season, Cumbria County Association were in a cash crisis. They had no cash in hand, had made a £39.83p loss on the Cumbria Closed tournament at Kendal and because of expense had decided to withdraw the junior team from this season's County Championship.

Although a senior team will continue to play in the Leeds County Championship, a decision was taken to drop the junior team from this season's County Championship.

This had been done season 1987-88 after a successful 1986-87 season and ironically the current withdrawal also follows a good season with two wins and a draw and promise from all those in the team, and the purchase of shirts for them by Copeland Fluid Power, of Frizington.

A decision was taken to drop county trials unless promises of charge could be found. All juniors wishing to go to regional trials in future will pay their own entrance fees.
Treasurer Richard Johnstone is tournament secretary with Colin Taylor umpires secretary and Eddie O'Hara coaching secretary. I was re-elected as Press and Publicity secretary.

The team fee for affiliation to the county has been increased from £3.20 to £3.50, but £4 paid after December 1st.

Sub-committees - Umpiring: John and Colin Taylor and Bob Gale; team selection: Bev Gledinning, John Taylor and Eddie O'Hara; tournaments: all members of the committee; coaching: Eddie O'Hara and league reps.

Millom has been selected as the venue for the Cumberland Closed on Sunday March 4th.

DERBYSHIRE

Martin Kinsella

THE 1988/90 season ended on a high note as Derbyshire, spearheaded by Alan Cooke, beat Midlands 3-4 to win the inaugural Maurice Goldstein memorial challenge match. Proving, as I suspected, that a full strength Derbyshire side are the rightful county champions.

The Derbyshire Closed was played in May at Greasley Sports Centre and the results as follows:

M.S. John Holland bt Martin Kinsella.
L.S. Rose Hagger bt Amanda Dawson.
M.D. Holland Kinsella bt Hall Billington.
X.D. Bambford Deaton bt Haggar Hagger.
J.D. Thorley Deaton bt Haggar Dawkins.
U.17 Jason Bambford bt Martin Dawson.
U.17 Nicola Deaton bt Jessica Pope.
U.14 Martin Dawson bt Jack Boul.
U.12 Nicola Deaton bt David Purdy.

A good day was had by all - particularly John Holland and Rose Hagger, who won their first Derbyshire titles.

In the Derbyshire Challenge Cup ADG "F" (Chesterfield) triumphed over Ashfield Aces (Amber Valley).

In the County League winners were:

Div.1 - Matlock
Div.2 - Derby
Ladies - Burton 1
Vets - Matlock

Best wishes to John Holland, who have limply plunged into full time table tennis, "may the force be with you!"

With Cookie back from Sweden and Brad and Julie B in fine form we are looking forward with confidence to the new season.

ESSEX

Alan Shepherd

SEASON 1988/89 ended in an unprecedented blaze of success insofar as every one of our nine County teams had become either champions of their divisions or runners-up. To commemorate these achievements the County held a celebration party in the garden of our Secretary Gillian Squier's house in rural Dagenham. The players were joined by their parents, friends and supporters together with life members and county officials. Very welcome guests were the local branch manager of the Leeds Permanent Building Society and his wife. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the County Champions trophies and Essex badges.

Disappointment (and surprise) at Grant Solder's non-selection as a member of the England team, which took part in the European Youth Championships. His omission was followed by tremendous pride in the news that he had won the Spanish Junior Open. Perhaps the Editor will now invest in a more up to date photograph of the young man!

Following the arrival in our midst of the exciting junior James O'Keurleke, I found myself practising at my local Club a few tables away from a young lady who looked a bit useful. She turned out to be Kubrat Owolabi, the Nigerian No.1 lady at a/t Peppard. "Get on with it" - One stalwart County worker of many past services and welcome Ken to a new role for him as Treasurer. Frank Jones our Hon.Umpire's Sec unquestionably did sterling work last season - persuading everybody that he could lay his hands on qualified County Umpires, willing victims of Frank's highly persuasive powers last season were John & Gill Smith, also Peter Colling, all hail from Cheltenham. Frank tells me that the County's list of National and County Umpires now stands at 14, quite a tidy few - well done Frank.

Coaching has been well operated under the control of Peter Cruwys and Steve Cox since the beginning of the season and the third School of Sport organised by the Glo'shire County Council was held at St. Paul's College in Cheltenham with official coaches supplied by the ETTA.

Membership throughout the County was greatly enhanced by Cirencester's entry of 26 teams. Cheltenham were up by 3 teams and Stroud unchanged by the narrow margin of one team, surprisingly Gloucester City's membership fell from 76 teams in 1987-8 to 68 in 1988-9.

The County Management Committee for season 1989/90 is as follows:

President, Mr.L.C.T.Davis; Chairman, Mr.L.J.Smith; Vice-Chairman, Mr.P.Cruwys; Secretary, Mr.D.Jean; Treasurer, Mr.K.Bridle; Min Sec, Mrs.J.Barker; Umpires/Sec, Mr.F.Jones; Selection, Mr.D.Wyatt; Coaching Officer, Mr.P.Cruwys; Publicity Officer, Mr.A.F.Pappard; Plus three representatives (members) from each of the four affiliated Leagues.

In the County Championships both Senior and Junior teams had an average season finishing 4th and 6th respectively.

The Veterans continued their good performance in last season's championship by coming a close second and third in the senior - but being beaten on sets. However, their efforts have secured a place for them in Division 1 for this approaching season.

The Leeds British League:

Cheltenham Saracens team of, Dave Harvey - Graham Slack - Mark Owen and Darren Griffin could well face stiff competition this season in Division 2B of the Midland League - their first match will be played on August 27th and I understand that the League finishes on May 13th 1990. Raymond Powell from Gloucester, the County's No.1 Junior and last season's No. 5 in England as a cadet was recently selected to represent "The Hillsmeers Parker Foundation" in Junior team competitions at Jaca at the foot of the Pyrenees in Northern Spain.

These T.T. events comprised of one cadet and one junior team participating and playing the cadet on July 14th-15th & 16th respectively. In Powells team event they eventually finished up third from the top.

In the singles event Powell was in the Quarter Finals beaten by Carlos Minero of Spain, who so I am told is ranked at No. 13 in Europe as a Cadet.
And finally, Glo'shire has always had a small contingent of highly disabled players, many of whom belong to ETFA affiliated clubs and mix their T.T. with perfectly fit players, may I pay homage to just a few of them: Mrs. Elaine Marshall from Gloucester, who this year was selected to play for Great Britain by "The British Les Autres Sporting Association" in the European disabled championships in Vienna during August 1st - 4th, now Elaine did not win anything there at all, but as the holder of the two National Titles for the disabled she told me over the phone that it was a "VERY GREAT HONOUR TO BE THERE":

Other active disabled players from the County are — Anthony David (Gloucester) Wendy Neale and Grinn Lloyd both from Newent, all of these three participated in the senior division for the disabled at Reading on August 5th & 6th, Lloyd got to the S/F of the stand-up singles (a title which in previous years he has won twice) and with partner was unfortunate to be R.U. in the doubles.

HUNTINGDONSHIRE

HUNTS will be running a senior, veteran and junior team this year, and after an indifferent season last time will be looking for improved results this year.

The popular St. Neots Invitation league now has a full compliment of teams in senior, junior and two veteran divisions. The R.A.P. team should give strong opposition in the senior division. In the junior section Cambridge and Milton Keynes join the ranks, whilst Kettering join division one in the veterans after being promoted from division two.

In the Leids British League M.B.S. St. Neots will rely on the same squad as before with Stuart Palmer, Keith Richardson, Steve Moore and Mick Harper for the competition in Div. One North.

St. Neots will stage the first weekend of the Junior Premier Division.

Meanwhile at St. Ives, the club is preparing for its fifth InterClub Team Tournament where 72 club teams from 21 counties will compete in under 17, cadet and under 12 age groups.

Nearly 400 youngsters are expected to register in a tournament boosted this year by the entry of Stadtkindorf Fortuna of West Germany. The tournament takes place over the weekend of November 11th and 12th at St. Ivo Recreation Centre. 24 entries had to be returned in the junior section whilst the under 12 age group was also full within a few days. Play starts at 9.15 am each day.

FOR THE first time in the long history of the Bolton League, which operates under the banner of the Bolton Sports Federation, sponsorship has been showered upon it. Firstly the closed championships have been sponsored by Bolton Car Centre (£200) then the whole league has been sponsored by Bolton Gate Co (£400), the industrial door manufacturers, and finally the individual divisional championships have been sponsored by Bolton Timber Co (£200).

Middlesex

AS usual, the copy date for the first edition of Table Tennis News has crept up on me and finds me without a thought in my head! Our congratulations go to 2 of our Juniors, Sara Williams and David Baker, who were included in the England Squad for the Spanish Junior Open.

Apart from acquitting themselves well, it gave them some valuable experience. Well done, both of you.

We have not been very successful in getting sponsorship for the Middlesex 3-Star Open Championships, but have decided to go ahead just the same. Our President, Russell Grant, is quite convinced that he will find us a sponsor at the arena for the Friends of Middlesex on 16th September, and if the sponsorship proves big enough we might even be able to give a nice surprise to the winners of the event by increasing the prize money at the last moment. In the meantime we have left the Prize Fund as before, and hope that the Friends of the Middlesex 3-Star will support us in their usual numbers. Entry forms will be available at the Sussex 2-Star or from me early in October.

Our Closed Championships remain a problem, particularly as far as a venue is concerned. Once we have sorted that out, we will publish both date and venue in Table Tennis News and our own Bulletin, so keep an eye open for it.

The Selection Sub-Committee will be meeting early in September when the ranking lists will be sorted out, so with luck I should be able to put something in the November edition about that.

The Committee stays the same as last year (still with one vacancy). There is a great need for young administrators in table tennis generally, and particularly in Middlesex. So if you now of anyone who would like to give something to the game rather than just play, please let me know.

Norfolk

BY Ray Hogg

WITH REGRET I have to report the death of Gordon Whitwood. A Norwich man with more than 30 years connection with the sport as player and administrator. After retiring from active play he has been Chairman of the Norwich League and represented the League on the National Sports Council. He was the type of person with old type values who has no time for gamesmanship and foul serving practices so prevalent nowadays.

With the County — Neil Pickard has returned to the fold and is to be captain of the senior team. Along with Phil Logsdon I heart that Geoff Davies is now qualified to play for Norfolk after many years with Cambridgeshire, so together with Richard and Martyn Stevenson if available and a, so far unknown to me, lady we could be in for a successful season. Usual 2 junior teams to cope with the flood of players coming through. I do not envy Gerry Cockburn's job of organising those into just the 2 teams and arranging to transport them from all corners of the County. Our 2 veterans teams will be there as usual, possibly with some new faces as there are always players 'coming of age'. It has been hinted that we might be able to field a second senior and third veterans team in the future. Very nice thought but we must have somewhere to play home matches and more important someone to officiate. County Umpires required. County championships this season at Long Stratton, December 9/10th.

— Sen. Mike Parker — Suffolk Umpire has now moved into Norfolk and has intimated that he is available to help. Rumour has it that Ken Turner — National umpire of many years ago is set to return to the fray. Can anybody out there confirm or deny this.

Our local British League team Norwich Foxwood have been promoted to Div 2 North which will mean a vast increase in the time involved and mileage travelled. With better opposition and different problems we should attract back the spectators who have deserted us, no doubt through the continued repetition of the same old faces. Whether these long journeys have any effect on the players who also play County, which has meant a clash on the preceding Saturday, remains to be seen.

I have always been a fan of the Kings Lynn set up and this season we should see players from that league competing in all classes of County matches. Jim Defy had a go at me at the county A.G.M. about the lack of articles in the magazine this year and I have now retired from work which makes life easier and, providing that I can glean some news, I will submit it. Also our new editor is not very far away from me and I see news is on my back.

Oxfordshire

Steve Joyner

THE 1989 World Championships were held in April. Unfortunately this year Oxfordshire players narrowly missed out on qualification. So not to be hard done by, Twinnyp expert Eric Barlow organised a coach party of 37 to make the journey to Yugoslavia. With a large number of tables it was sometimes difficult to locate certain players, however John Chiffers, Pete Jones and Paul Saunders managed to keep a breast with the Swedish ladies team and monitor their movement through the tournament. Dawn Barnett chased Jan Ove Waldner around all day for his autograph but eventually had to make do with a like Carl Pran. With the Korean and German supporters already in fine voice it was only a matter of time before our party located the English team and responded in a similar fashion. Eventually Skylet Andrew and Alison Gordon were spotted performing. Skylet got on top with some big shots as the pair chalked up an English success, sparking the rowdy party into action. The England team now aware of our presence gave us plenty to shout about as Preano and heart throb Cooky powered on in the doubles.

Don Parker and the England team who, in such an important event, still managed to take time out to talk with the Banbury party. A pleasant gesture that very few other more successful nations were able to emulate. Well done team.

Des Douglas eager to have his photograph taken eventually managed to persuade photographer Wolly Smith to oblige. Lisa Lomas and the rest of the English ladies added plenty of colour to the championships. Although not so successful the girls did us proud on the table and on the eat walk. The afternoon break was essential for the thirsty English party to refuel in the bar ready for the mouth watering encounter between Germany’s Torben Wosik and our very own Carl Prean. With the Union Jack in position and the flags aloft Preano raced into a one point lead. This led problem boy Jay Allen to conduct the English party into a synchronised singing session. With the German crowd shocked by our ability to make noise they soon responded with their air horns and howitzers. Carl spoilt the atmosphere as he easily won the first two games, but to Carl’s credit he sensed the dampened atmosphere and coupled with the thought of terminating the live T.V. coverage, he was currently enjoying Carl sportinguly threw the next two games. During the final game Carl teasingly lost every other point just to keep the crowd excited. Each point was cheered and at one stage Eric Barlow got out of step and cried Preano during the rally (easy mistake). Eventually Carl wrapped up victory. The crowd went into overdrive singing and dancing long after the players had left. Despite all the fun and fine table tennis, one major highlight was the attitude of our junior side from the championships is the saddest blow for many a year and a serious disappointment to all those up-and-coming juniors who had their sights set on a county place. Despite considerable publicity being given to the problem of finding a team captain — and let’s face it, the job of transporting the team safely round the country and delivering them back home to various parts of the county at the end of a long day is not an easy job, quite apart from all the administrative work — no one came forward to offer their services. So the inevitable happened.

But that is not their only problem. Whilst Tony Cliff, the Wolverhampton chairman, has come forward to run the county league, other positions on the committee remain vacant. Ron Harvey and Dennis Butcher carry the county’s coaching responsibilities but tournaments and press reports will be missing from next year’s programme unless some new faces volunteer to join the committee to share some of the work. This will be my last contribution to TT News, winding up the 1988/89 season for Staffordshire before my intended move to Somerset. I don’t know how many readers we have in Staffordshire and our part of the West Midlands, but new blood is needed.

STAFFORDSHIRE

Jack Chalkley

A POORLY attended AGM was symptomatic of many of the difficulties which the county association is currently facing. Although secretary Derek Sherratt was able to announce that we had entered a senior team in the county championships for next year (they are entered in Div.3A), the withdrawal of at county level and it is up to you to find some volunteers from amongst your friends and playing colleagues.

The County League completed its programme with West Bromwich topping Division 1 and Walsall B, Potteries B and Tamworth B winning the other divisions. Div.1 - West Brom.A 12 pts., Potteries A 6, Walsall A 5, Stafford 1.

Div.2 - Walsall B 9, Stone 8, Wolverhampton A 5, Tamworth A 2.

Div.3 - Potteries B 12, Walsall C 4, Pottery A 4, Wolverhampton B 4.

Div.4 - Tamworth B 6 (26-14), Stafford Vets 6 (25-15), Pottery D 4, West Brom.B 4, Tamworth C.O.

Unfortunately, Walsall are withdrawing from the league next season in protest against the failure of some of the other teams to turn up or show the normal courtesies of giving proper notice. They have had more than their fair share of being on the receiving end of such bad behaviour.

The end-of-season hard bat tournament was again won by Wolverhampton for the fourth year running. A very strong team saw them brush aside the challenge from the Potteries for the Beattie team trophy and they also provided the four semifinalists in the individual event for the Turner trophy. Star of the day was Andrew Bellingham, making a return to table tennis after an absence of four years. In the final against Trevor Washington, he showed that he had lost none of his sharpness, speed and accuracy in winning 15, 15. His semifinal against Andy Rich renewed memories of their many County Closed tussles. Another Wolverhampton success was also achieved by their ladies and our congratulations go to Fiona Elliott, Jill Harris and Sandra Roden. Their win in the Rose Bowl competition is their third in a row, a splendid performance.

A regular flow of information from Kevin Shaw has enabled me to keep abreast of the Potteries situation, and in the final reckoning Burslem ANC pipped Kettering Annals by 2 points, with Bradwell Scorpions in third place. For Burslem, Craig Bakewell maintained his entry of 76 and produced a major event in Stone. Wishing to honour Slater was second in the averages. They decided to organise with 94%. Jill Harris (Bradwell) achieved complete success and Ron Dixon lost in the last 16 to Chris Fellows. Perhaps the most popular event is the Div. 3-7 singles which attracted an entry of 60. The final saw Ray Davies triumph over Kevin Uzzell. Results:

Mens: A.Rich bt. K.Fellows 12,20
Ladies: H.Lower bt J.Harris 19,19
Mixed Doubles: J.Harris/K.Fellows bt H.Lower/A.Dixon 11,15
Ladies Doubles: H.Lower/J.Dunning bt J.Harris/J.Davey 17,19,9
Vets: R.Dixon bt S.Cartwright 13,13
Div 3-7: R.Davies bt K.Uzzell 17,21
Savoy: J.Wootton bt Z.Khan 18,16
Jr Girls: S.Brabazon bt T.Cuff 16,19
Jr Boys: L.Moreton bt J.Brainch 16,15

SUFFOLK
Paul Hutchinson

SUFFOLK were disappointed at not being able to gain a foothold in the County Premier Division but found the experience beneficial. The standard, as expected, was high but as the competition wore on Suffolks gained in confidence and gave a fair account of themselves but were unable to prevent relegation. Undoubtedly having two Leeds British League teams in Suffolk has strengthened and improved the County teams. This was borne out of the reports of the County 2nd, with good team spirit as well as improved playing and we look forward to a successful season again this year.

Junior Players of the Stowmarket Table Tennis League attended a coaching course aimed at the 16 and over age group. The course run by Paul Hutchinson and Barry Than. This was held at the Centre 3 Club in Stowmarket and was well attended with none of the players having had experience or attended a coaching session before. It is hoped to run more of these courses throughout the county.

Finally, a note on a remarkable event in Stone. Wishing to honour Slater was second in the averages and table tennis colleagues in Stafford and Staffordshire. I have a lot of happy memories and many thanks for the help which I have received and the friendship shown to me. I hope to meet up with many of you from time to time. Au revior.

WOLVERHAMPTON Closed Championships took place at the Woodfield S. & S. Club on 2nd April 1989 with a record entry of 8 tables were used for the 10 events involving 250 games. The mens singles attracted an entry of 76 and produced a major shock when No 1 seed Adrian Dixon lost in the last 16 to Chris Davies (deuce in the 3rd). This produced a very open contest, Chris losing in the Quarters to Mervyn Wood in an excellent game, and Trevor Washington losing a close semifinal to Andy Rich. In a well fought final Andy beat Keith Fellows.

The England v Sweden match and the Western Masters Veterans' tournament — both staged in Swindon for the first time by the same committee which organises the Two Star tournament — were also heralded as successes.

The Three Star tournament will take place over a weekend in February. The junior tournament will remain a Two Star event and be played on a different date.

Wiltsen's first team kept the county flag flying in the Leeds crown championships by winning their division. They tied with two other counties for top spot but took the title by one game.

The second division finished in 3rd place in Division 2B with 6 wins and 2 defeats from their matches. Skipper Bill Moulding reported that Kevin Satchell (West Wilt) had won all 6 of his singles matches, Brenda Lee (Swindon) 7 out of 8 and Debbie Cleary Swindon 4 out of 5.

Umpires' secretary Margaret Wilson said there was a shortage of umpires and interest was lacking. She resigned from the post which, as there were no volunteers, was left open.

The inter-town competition was not run last year because of apathy among the players but it was felt by the meeting that it was an important competition.

Leagues will be asked to gauge the interest and if there is enough to run the competition, Keith Thompson agreed to organise it.

Officers elected were: chairman Colin Bendall; secretary Alan Duke; treasurer Doug Parsons; county match secretaries (seniors) Debbie Cleary, (juniors) Val Clark, (vice-secretary) Brian Powell (first team), Mike O'Leary (second team) and Basil Thompson (thirds); coaching officer Kevin Satchell; press officer Laurie Selby; inter-town secretary Keith Thompson; auditor Les Howse.

Tony Brown was also a double champion, winning both the veteran's singles and the men's doubles with Alan Cooke.

Paul Andrews beat Don Crook in the deciding game in the inter-town singles.

Andrew Metcalfe ended a successful comeback season by being ranked the top player in the Swindon and District Table Tennis League. Metcalfe, who won the Evening Advertiser Cup for the division one averages and also took the Wiltshire closed championship, was back in the game after a four year lay-off.

Brenda Lee topping the women's list and Tracey Youldon gets a double billing by heading both the under 17 and under 14 girls' sections.

There is a new name at the top of the veterans' list where Nat Richardson takes the number one spot away from Brian Powell.

A plan to rejuvenate junior table tennis in the town was unveiled at the Swindon and District league's annual meeting.

The longer change would mean that teams will be made up of two players rather than three at present and the result would depend on the number of games won, not the number of matches won.

League secretary Val Clark said it was vital to get more juniors playing. She felt many teams could get two players but often a third was needed.

A second Swindon team is being entered into the Cotswold Ladies League. This follows the success of last year's winners, Mandy Westwood.

At Kidderminster, a repeat of last year's final saw Jeremy Duffield retain the Open Singles with an 11, 13 victory over Steve Horton, while in the Ladies Singles, Mandy House, competing for the first time, scored a narrow-17,13,17 win over last year's winner Alison Westwood.

Dates for the County Closed events have been set. The Junior event will be held in Worcester on November 12th, and the Senior Tournament at Quarry Bank, Dudley on March 4th.

Thorns, Dudley, have been admitted to the British League Div I. They are the first club with the power of the county to venture beyond Regional Club League level.

The Dudley league team of Paul Garner, Mark Hingley and Steve Horton, are the three players — Nick Davies, Richard Whiteley and Michael Emmerson — who keep the club afloat.

The Dudley Urban league has been accepted in the British League Div II. The result of the competition will be announced at the end of the season.

AS EVER the first County Notes of the season will be an amalgam of last season's results received too late for inclusion in the May 89 edition, close season news and a brief look ahead to the 1989-90 campaign.

In the Yorkshire League final averages Harrogate, the title holders in Mens Division I, had all their three players — Nick Davies, Richard Whiteley and Michael Emmerson — at the top of the club with the men. The first place in the men's doubles with Andy Stroud/Simon Lee.

Yorkshire Ladies had an outstanding season as they retained the championship with both Janet Deakin and Josette Ryalls undefeated and Lesley Longstone beaten only once. Also returning a clean sheet was Gareth Jones in a Selby trio who again claimed the Junior crown.

Other winners were — Division 2, Selby, Division 3, Northallerton III; Division 4, Selby II; Veteran 1, Wakefield; Veteran 2, Bradford; Veteran 3, Hull II; Cadets, Wakefield.

For the coming year the Junior and Cadet Divisions have been split into Under 15 & Under 17Girls (teams of 2) sections in place of the mixed format of recent seasons when teams have been made up of three boys and one girl playing ten games.

Disappointing to note the demise of Castleford/Pontefract in the Leagues, but this loss is more than compensated for by the return of Leeds to the top out in the cold for several seasons in the Mens sections, to make a welcome return with two teams and add a second Ladies side.

Bradford League secretary Arthur Bowers once again stoked up the enthusiasm of the youth of the wool city with the annual Arthur Bowers Youth Tournament at the Herrmits’ club.

Surprise winner in the top (under 18) age group was 14 year old Richard Potter, who toppled David Williamson in the final, but the old dog still had his revenge in the Under 17 event, which featured the same two contestants.

Potter took a second title in the Under 15 Singles, while the Merit Award went to ten year old Paul Stebbings, a reward for sportsmanship and demeanour.

The tireless Arthur, who conducts a lunchtime coaching session at the local Fairweather Green Middle School with the help of headmaster David Park, added to the interest with an end of season tournament in which Hayley Quil- aqvi beat Jonathan Marshall in the final — two new names in the Bradford cadet sides of the future?

Rivals from East and West of the Pennines came together in a great day of table tennis when, following an earlier get-together between the clubs at Wakefield, Wakefield Y.M.C.A. and Vymura Stockport met for a second series of friendly games in Cheshire.

A memorable day ended with Wakefield leader David Townsend presenting a plaque as a ‘token of friendship and esteem’ to Vymura organiser Doreen Schofield.

The County tournament scene will be as busy as ever during the early weeks of the season with emphasis particularly on the Junior event when these notes appear in print the Kirklees Junior No. 1 cadet, Katie Goodall from LEEDS, who made a clean sweep of the season’s top Under 14 events.

All five Junior Select singles titles went the way of the aggressive left hander together with four of the doubles honours with regular partners Sally Marling, plus the top place in the Leaks English National Championships and the Cadet Ranking trials — a record possibly unparalleled in this age group.

Katie bids farewell to Cadet play this season, but she has already announced her imminent arrival on the Junior scene with her success in the Top Twelve and a ‘double header’ at the Essex Junior where she claimed both Junior Singles and, with Joanne Roberts, Doubles.

Yorkshire table tennis received a boost this week when Clarke Brewery of Wakefield appoints, already sponsors the Wakefield League and Excellence Centre for young players, gave their backing to the Leeds Table Tennis League.

Clarks Brewery Leeds Table Tennis League in which 108 teams will compete, should get extra lift-off for the new season, which starts on October 2, because of the sponsorship according to League Chairman Chris Corlett who said: “This sponsorship should renew the keen interest in the league area and it will encourage young players and enhance their prospects. We are grateful to Clarks Brewery.”

Clarks managing director, David Garthwaite, who met the Leeds League Ctte members at the Brewery on Monday (August 14) to discuss details of the sponsorship, said: “We have a great deal of talent in Yorkshire which needs support to put the county on the map. Local businesses ought to give the backing which clubs, coaches and players deserve. Their success is to our advantage, so we hope others will join our ‘Back Yorkshire Sport’ efforts.”

FOLLOWING the Modern Maintenance Products (International) Ltd. Yorkshire Junior Select, it is congratulations to the County’s England No. 1 cadet, Katie Goodall from LEEDS, who made a clean sweep of the season’s top Under 14 events.

At HARROGATE Wanderers, who reached the semifinal of the Yorkshire Knock Out Cup with a 5 - 4 victory over Huddersfield I.C.I., are again disputing the Division 1 title with old rivals St. Georges A. Wanderers hold a slight advantage, but the outcome is not likely to be settled until the final week of the season when the sides meet.

The Effects of Higher Nets
by HIKOSUKE TAMASU

This is a summary of an article which appeared first in "The Table Tennis Report" and is published with the permission of the Tamasu Company Ltd. It describes experiments that the company has carried out with higher nets and presents some initial conclusions.

IN THE early days of table tennis, the height of a standard net was 6.75 ins (17.15cm); the soft balls and the slow tables used at that time discouraged attacking play and the game was dominated by defensive play. In 1936, in an attempt to speed up play and make it more attractive, the height of the net was reduced to the present 6 ins (15.25cm).

This was found to provide a reasonable compromise between attacking and defensive play but the widespread adoption of sponge and sandwich rubbers in the 1950s gave the advantage to attackers. This trend has continued with the development of more advanced covering materials and the result is that defensive players are now very much in the minority in modern table tennis.

Many people feel that the game would be more attractive and enjoyable if the balance were restored and one way of achieving this might be to raise the height of the net. In order to establish the effectiveness of this proposal, the Butterfly Company has carried out experiments on the effect of different heights, and this article describes the results obtained so far.

The tests were supervised by Professor Terumasa Higashi of Osaka University and Professor Norio Takashima of Kinki University, in collaboration with Mr. Hideki (Dick) Yamaoka, manager of Butterfly's Research Division, Professor Takashima, formerly one of the world's best defensive players, is in charge of the University table tennis team and Dr. Higashi is its medical adviser.

To enable the effect of changes of net height on different styles of play to be studied, the players from the University team who took part in the tests were chosen to include both attackers and defenders, some using the penholder grip and others the shake-hand grip, and with various types of racket covering. Two series of tests were conducted, with twelve players.

For the first series a standard net was used but a laser beam was directed parallel with the top of the net and at 1cm or 2cm above it. A number of matches were played under "normal" conditions, without the players making any attempt to modify their style of play, and the number of interruptions of the laser beam indicated the likely effect of increased net height.

From this series of tests it appeared that raising the net to 1cm or 2cm would make very little difference to the outcome of matches. An increase of 1cm should affect all styles of play equally and an increase of 2cm should give only a slight advantage to defenders, while in neither case did there seem to be any variation for different types of racket covering.

In the second series of tests different nets were used and the same players competed against each other, first with a standard net and then with nets 1cm and 2cm higher. For these matches the players were aware that the net was higher and therefore adjusted their strokes, if they thought it necessary, to take advantage of the increased height.

The results of the second series of tests generally confirmed those of the previous series. In both series, the most significant effect was the greater proportion of points lost in service as the net was raised. Most of the change occurred with the first increase in height of 1cm and raising it by a further 1cm did not greatly increase the rate of lost points.

Afterwards, the players were asked for their opinions. Most of them thought that the 1cm higher net had made little or no difference, although some agreed that service and return of service had been affected slightly. All felt that the 2cm higher net had presented some difficulty and had caused them to modify strokes, especially fast topspin drives and smashes.

The conclusions from these limited experiments were that the net must be raised by at least 2cm to give any benefit to defensive players but that a 1cm increase may be a useful means of limiting the advantage of service. However, more evidence will be needed to establish whether or not a higher net is desirable and it is hoped that others will conduct similar trials.
O'Driscoll was Magnificent by JOHN WOODFORD in Bridlington

MICHAEL O’DRISCOLL, 17, retained his boys singles crown at the Leeds Junior English Open at Bridlington on June 5, the first boy to retain the title for 35 years. It was a storming, magnificent victory in the final to capsize South Korea’s Sang Joen, 8, 11.

O’Driscoll, is without doubt England’s finest prospect for at least five years, his accuracy and power in the final was even more breathtaking than in the earlier rounds when he demolished almost the entire Korean team.

Chris Oldfield also had a wonderfully successful tournament possibly helping O’Driscoll by taking out South Korean Hyan Jung Sik in the quarters and it was of course, O’Driscoll and Oldfield who lifted the boys team event beating Korea 3 - 2.

England captain Don Parker said after the finals in Bridlington."Michael O’Driscoll’s outstanding talent has shown us that he has the confidence and ice-cool temperament that will take him into senior English class next season.”

Leaving the junior ranks as a "super-star" is one thing, achieving a similar status as a senior player is a different matter, but it does seem clear that Don Parker as the sole selector is unlikely to have any hesitation in bringing O’Driscoll into the senior elite squad and into the European League.

Jung Sik Hyan was second seeded to O’Driscoll and due to meet him in the final if the top seed had worked out as expected, so the giant-killing by Oldfield and Jonathan Taylor was especially welcome. Unfortunately, Oldfield, whose incredible performance against Alan Cooke at Portsmouth was still in the spectators’ minds, was unable to find the answer in the semi-finals and lost late in the third to Sang Joon Park.

England had five players in the last sixteen — Oldfield, O’Driscoll, Brian Mileham, Jonathan Taylor and Leigh Jeffries. All five were impressive at Bridlington but in the latest England junior ranking list it is Taylor who is the new No. 3 and he now looks certain to be the new No. 2 on the next list.

CADETS

From a large entry of cadets the new England No. 3 David Baker (Heston) won the singles with a fine win 18, 16 over Chris Sladden of Southend, who is the new England No. 7 cadet. The No. 1 seed Katie Goodall sailed through the draw to win the cadets singles crown, 14, 8 against Sara Williams of Hillingdon, who is now No. 6 in England. Miss Goodall, whose family have some areas of disagreement with the England administration, had not gone to Luxembourg, retains her No. 1 cadet rating.

Jo Jin Sook, Toole was narrowly beaten 19, -30, 20 by Sorensen and Goodall beat Thornley.

In the quarters, it was all over for the England girls squad as Katie Goodall was overpowered by Kim Boon Sik, the losing finalist to Yun Shon Ji.

TEAM EVENTS

Both the England boys teams recorded triumphant progress. The shock of the day came when England II (Jonathan Taylor and Grant Solder) beat Sweden 1 3 - 2 in the quarter-finals. The match was poised at 2 - 2 with honours even.

Grant Solder, winner of the Spanish Open in July, astonished the crowd at the Spa Hall stopping Johansson -24, 11, 20, the match of the day. But, in the semi-finals Solder and Taylor found the Koreans too strong and went down 3 - 0.

Meanwhile, in the other half, England’s all-conquering heroes O’Driscoll and Oldfield beat Korea II in the semi-final and then Korea 1, 3 - 2 in the nail-biting final round. Oldfield was beaten 14, 16 by Hyan in the penultimate game, but O’Driscoll came to the rescue to win the trophy for England, defeating Lee, 14, 17.

England girls team of Julie Billington and Debbie Toole reached the semi-finals of the girls event with a fine 3 - 0 win over West Germany II, but in the semi-finals the England girls were unable to make progress and lost 3 - 0 to Korea I.

GIRLS FLOUNDER

It was not the best of tournaments for the England girls. At the third round juncture only Julie Billington, Debbie Toole, Katie Goodall and Maria Thornley were still fighting. But only Goodall survived to the quarters as Billington lost to Jo Jin Sook, Toole was narrowly beaten 19, -30, 20 by Sorenson and Goodall beat Thornley.

All five were impressive at Bridlington but in the latest England junior ranking list it is Taylor who is the new No. 3 and he now looks certain to be the new No. 2 on the next list.

The Spa Hall provides excellent conditions, but the second venue used for the early individual events again proved too small and was over-crowded. But the generous support from the East Yorkshire Borough Council means that the tournament costs the ETTA next-to-nothing, compared with hundreds of pounds for other venues such as the Mountbatten Centre at Portsmouth, so I shall be surprised if Bridlington is not chosen again for 1990.

Neil Accepts his Chance

IN THE absence of Jonathan Taylor and Darren Howarth Cheshire's England-ranked Juniors, Neil Thornton-Allen took his chance to become Cheshire Junior champion; Cheshire Cadet Mark Newsom came through unseeded to oppose Neil in the final. Zoe Buchanan did the double winning both the Cadet and Junior Girls titles despite still suffering from glandular fever.

The event was organised by Karen Tonge at Castlefields Youth Centre, Runcorn her last event as Coaching Secretary for Cheshire a position she has held for ten years. She has resigned on her appointment as North-West Regional Chairman. Campbell Eaton of the Mid-Cheshire League is the new Cheshire Coaching Secretary.

Crest Under 12 Squad

At the recent European Youth Championships in Luxembourg, it was very noticeable how the standard and quality of play of young players is improving. Most of the top European countries are training their players very hard at a younger age and if we are going to continue to compete we must adopt a similar system. For this reason the Under 12 Squad set up is making efforts to increase its training programme.

From September the squad will attend a weekend training camp at Luton every month. The players will play for hours a day with a small amount of time spent at each camp monitoring their physical fitness. There will be a continued emphasis on good technique and playing a positive game, which is a vital requirement if they are to compete at the highest level in the future.

The squad has had sponsorship from a handful of companies and I would like to thank them for their kind contribution. These funds will enable us to organise the valuable international experience that our players need.

As no event was held in 1987/8 and no full Closed was to be held in 1988/9 Karen Tonge organised a Cadet/Junior Closed so these age groups would not miss out. The County Committee are planning a full Closed 1989/90 season.

The Third English National Under 11 Table Tennis Championships
by ROGER MOSS

IF EVER we needed an indication that Table Tennis is gathering strength a trip to Mansfield Leisure Centre on Sunday 30th April where the above Championships took place would have been all the confirmation you would have needed.

A record entry of 113 (84 boys 29 girls) were at Mansfield and during the day they all gave 100% commitment taking the ups and downs of the game like mature players, although occasionally off the table the odd "Kleenex" from equally involved parents came in useful. The atmosphere throughout the tournament was a relaxed one due to the tremendous support the organiser and referee received from both players and parents and the attitude of the players was a credit to table tennis.

The standard of play continues to improve every year and one could see a number of potential England Champions in the making and I am sure that BBC Television who were there filming for the "Move it" programme felt the same, the Producer informed me that he was delighted to contest the semi-finals where Steven and Darryl beat Simon 16, 18 after a hard fought match Darryl beat Stephen 18, 13, 19. The final between Joanne and Shelly was a credit to both girls with Joanne Barham winning 16, 18, 19. The better between Steven and Darryl was undoubtedly Darryl with Steven Meddings of Warwickshire becoming the National U11 Boys Champion for 1989 winning 11, 15.

The match format will be 2 separate matches - Girls v Girls and Boys v Boys on two tables. Each cadet team will consist of 3 and all will play all.

Leeds Schools International Championships

by DAVID LOMAS

ENGLAND'S UNBEATEN run in the team events of the Leeds Schools International Championships, which stretched back to the inaugural Championships at Middlesbrough in 1975, was doubly shattered when Wales won the Senior Boys and Girls events at Stockland Green Leisure Centre, Birmingham on June 30, July 1 and 2nd.

The finals boiled up into a dramatic climax when Wales, leading England in both finals, 5-3, needed to clinch one of the two remaining doubles matches to ensure victory. There was great pressure on all the players as the eager spectators and team-mates focused on the vital matches which concluded the day's action on Saturday evening.

Wales edged home, 6-4, in both matches to register victory and edge England into runners-up spot. The Boys team non-playing captain, Gerald Watkins, was naturally delighted with this Wales victory: "The boys put in a lot of effort. No.1 Steve Ward played consistently well and No.2 Chris Kelly won both his singles matches in the final, plus the vital doubles. Our team has shown in-depth improvement." Girls captain, Len Elias, was equally pleased with the Girls' performances: "It was a good all-round team effort. They all played well but No.1 Justine Thomas did particularly well to defeat England's No.1 Cadet (U14) player, Katie Goodall. We showed more commitment than in the past. England's Senior non-playing captains, Stuart Worrell and Teresa Moore acknowledged Wales' success. Stuart told me "Wales are a good all-round side and it was always going to be a tough final" whilst Teresa thought that her girls did well to push the Welsh so close.

But if England were disappointed at the loss of such an impressive record they certainly bounced back in style in the individual stages of the Championships on Sunday. England players made a "clean sweep", winning all six events for the first time for five seasons.

Scott Greenbrook (Ifield College, Crawley) added to his Dunlop English Schools Individual (Under-19) title at Mansfield in April, by winning the Senior Boys title.

Almost 150 players from England, Ireland, Iceland, the Isle of Man and Wales were involved in these Championships, sponsored for the second time by the Leeds Permanent Building Society.

Whereas the Isle of Man celebrated their first-ever team medal (third in the Cadet Girls event) Scotland could only reflect on what might have been had their leading players Euan Walker and Sarah Hurry been available. Ireland must have been disappointed with Gary Neilson's showing in the

THE SURVIVORS of qualifying competitions staged in 45 county areas, involving over three thousand competitors from 700 schools, did battle for national honours when the Dunlop English Schools Individual Championships took place at Mansfield Leisure Centre on Saturday, April 29th.

A total of 268 players took part, with matches being organised on the now familiar pattern of “knockout” matches with automatic consolation competitions for players losing their first matches played.

There was a big upset in the Boys Under-16 event — a high-quality competition — where unseeded Darren Howarth (Audenshaw High School, Manchester) went all the way and defeated northern colleague Andrew Eden (Lancashire) 21-11, 24-26, 21-19 in a pulsating final. This was Darren’s finest achievement to date. On his way to the final he ousted Brian Mileham (Kent) in the quarter-final, 21-16, 21-15. Mileham had been in particularly good form in the senior body’s Junior tournaments this season, winning the Junior Top 12 event earlier this year.

Scott Greenbrook (Ifield Community College, Crawley) was a comfortable winner of the senior (Boys Under-19) event, beating Colin Bowler (Bedfordshire) in the final. Colin’s twin brother, Peter, also did well, reaching the semi-final of the Boys Under-16 event. There were other family connections in the tournament. Joanna Roberts (Allerton Grange High School, Leeds) held on to her Girls’ Under-16 title in a closely-fought final against Helen Wright (Devon), whilst Joanna’s younger sister, Emma, had to be content with the Girls’ Under-13 consolation title. The main event was won by No.1 seed, Nicola Deaton (Barlborough Hall, Chesterfield) who added to the Girls’ Under-11 title she won last year. Darren Blake (Cumnor House, Croydon) also stepped up from his position as Under-11 title-holder to win the Boys’ Under-13 event – his third national schools title. He edged out his hitherto “bogey player” Edward Hatley (Hampshire) the holder.

Nicola Deaton

Joanne Barham (St. Joseph’s RC Primary, Rotherhithe) won a rare title for the Inner London Schools’ TTA when she won the Under-11 category. She went on to win the English Table Tennis Association’s Under-11 national title, held at the same venue on the following day. Steven Meddings (Banners Gate Middle School, Sutton Coldfield) achieved a similar “double” in winning the Under-11 titles in similar fashion.

Katie Goodall, also a pupil at Allerton Grange High School, Leeds, didn’t show her tender years when at the age of 14 she won the Girls’ Under-19 event, beating No.1 seed, Nicola McGrath in a “roses” battle. This was Katie’s third national title, having won the Girls’ Under-13 event in 1986 and the Girls’ Under-13 crown last year.

New President for ESTTA

Mr. Arnold was elected as President of the ESTTA at the Annual General Meeting in May. He served as General Secretary from 1975 to 1978 and followed this with sixteen devoted years as Chairman.

It was also the end of a formidable West Yorkshire “duo” when ESTTA President, Tom Matthews — a former Leeds High School Head Master — stood down as President after sixteen devoted years as Chairman (1973 - 1989).

In a Foreword article in the Association’s newly-published Official Handbook John Blackburn says “It has been under the wise leadership of these two devoted officers that the ESTTA has grown to its present high standing in the table tennis world and I cannot thank them enough for all that they have done together in the past.”

John Hilton won the Veterans and Mens singles, and in the latter giving away 23 years to Chris Oldfield, it couldn’t have been a more popular double, come back next year John. Local success in the Mens Doubles for Andy Creed and Paul Lewis, and for David Hadley in the Junior Class II.

In the Junior events on the Sunday we saw Nicola Deaton from Derby winning both the Under 12 Girls and the Junior Girls, and losing in the Cadet final, her will and determination to win was tremendous.

On each day Mary Wetmore ran the usual raffle, and on the Sunday tried to sell a ticket to a young lad who had run out of cash, so an adult who was leaving gave him his ticket, and a happy boy took home a basket of fruit for his mum. I thank all the officials, especially the umpires who made the weekend a success, and hope that they and the players will come back to Thornbury at the end of April 1990.

THIS YEAR we returned to Thornbury and bearing in mind that every previous year we have had to restrict the Junior entry, decided to use 24 Tables, even so once again we were over subscribed. As the organiser I wasn’t given a specific job for the weekend, but with numerous odd jobs I saw very little table tennis, so my comments are more concerned with impressions of the weekend, than with actual play.

MANSFIELD Leisure Centre was once again the venue for the finals of these inter-league Knock-out Championships on Sunday, 14th May 1989.

The easiest and most predictable victory was by Wolverhampton in the J. M. Rose Bowl as the Newbury team were without the services of Mandy Sainsbury who was committed to an event in Germany.

The Wilmott Cup final was between two London leagues, Willesden and Middlesex, both sides containing international players. For Willesden, Nicky Mason and Skylet Andrew were ranged against Graham Sandley and Nigel Tyler of North Middlesex, plus David Tan and Dipak Topiwala respectively. Nicky Mason won his three matches comfortably but Graham Sandley delayed the Willesden victory with a good two-straight win over Skylet Andrew.

The girls from Pontefract proved too strong for Plymouth in the Bromfield Trophy and cruised to a 5-0 win but not before Sarah Pengelly had taken Joanne Roberts to a close third game.

The longest final of all was the Carter Cup where the favourites from Nottingham found themselves 3-1 down to Crawley/Horsham by Alan Cole beating both Robert Yong and Paul Wood, plus Keith Newell taking a close opening game against Paul Wood. However, the Nottingham boys rallied to take the match 5-3 and so retain the title.

Collector of Memorabilia

I AM a collector of table tennis badges and memorabilia (postcards, books, cards, playing equipment, etc) and should like to purchase or exchange items with other enthusiasts or collectors. I will reply to all letters promptly with list of exchanges or payment, and would also appreciate any information on the possibility of obtaining table tennis videos (VHF or BETA) on players of the game such as Victor Barnes, Johnny Leach, Ferenc Sidó, etc. from the past and present day stars from other countries Sweden, China, Korea, Japan. I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

G. Hammond makes public statement

THE TOURNAMENT Committee believes the time is now right to publicly state our side of the off/official affair on the Essex 3 Star.

It may be as well to explain the procedures required to obtain a 3 Star grading as it is not automatic that once a 3 Star, always a 3 Star. At least two years and two months before a 3 Star grading is sought, an application for intent has to be completed (OT3). This request is despatched to all Tournament Organisers at the beginning of each season. This request from the Committee enables the Tournaments Committee to assess the organisation of that Tournament for two seasons before any decisions are made. At the beginning of each season, a further form (OT1/2) is required to be completed for the following season, giving full particulars of the Tournament.

Now for the facts. At the beginning of season 1987/88, seven applications (OT3) had been received for season 1989/90. I subsequently wrote to all existing 3 Star Organisers, informing them of this situation stating that unless National Council agreed to all seven being approved, then one of them may lose their status. The Organisers were informed of a very early date. A decision was not made during 1987/88 as the Tournaments Committee were assessing the performance of the Organisers. From the beginning of season 1988/89, the Tournament Committee, including five new members, were not in a position to make a well judged decision, and therefore at our first meeting held in September 1988, we recommended seven applications to National Council. Due to the postal strike at that time, I had not received any OT1/2s for season 1989/90 and therefore, there was no question of progressing any Tournament applications that time. At the National Council meeting in January 1989, the request for seven 3 Stars was turned down and the decision of selecting the six was passed back to Tournaments Committee. I would emphasise again, that we recommended seven 3 Stars because of the reasons given earlier and therefore we were nothing to disappoint somebody.

The next Tournament Committee meeting was on the 14th January 1989 by which time, several forms had been received, but not one from Essex. As there were two interested parties on the Committee, both Mike Hanley and Bill Willson withdrew from the meeting. It should be made clear at this point that Willson had applied for 3 Star status for the two previous seasons but had been unsuccessful, although it had been indicated by a member of the Management Committee that 3 Star was desirable in the west country.

The Committee firstly considered the merits of Wiltshire’s application and after a full discussion was agreed to award 3 Star Status to Wiltshire. M. Hanley and W. Willson then returned to the meeting. There had been some doubts right up to the meeting that the Midland Counties might not run, but this was cleared up. The Committee looked at the remaining six Tournaments in relation to prize money, venue, admissions, the day, facilities, availability of umpires, canteen facilities, organisation leading up to the Tournament. The decision was then made that Essex had not complied to Tournament Regulations as an OT1/2 had not been received. There had also been organisational mishaps in the past when the completed draw sheets together with group matches results had been lost and nobody received any computer points. In the previous season, a report on winners and number of entrants (OT5) had not been completed. It perhaps should be mentioned here, that an application was finally received the day after our meeting, probably prompted by the Essex National Council but this was not the correct or current form.

The comments made by John Woodford in the April edition of the ETTA News were particularly relevant when he said that poor administration was the reason why Essex lost their 3 Star Status but as far as the Committee is concerned, "preserving any remaining cherished OT3’s was the main thrust of policy in the May edition was completely wrong. At the April National Council meeting, Essex National Council put up a case for reinstatement, which was backed by the Management Committee and the President and consequently, National Council voted Essex back to a 3 Star. As far as the Tournament Committee is concerned, the decision to accept Essex and therefore seven 3 Star events, was made by National Council - NOT Tournaments Committee and therefore we have no change of mind but we were overruled by National Council. The same course of action was probable whoever had lost their 3 Star title. We of course do not have any vendetta against Essex (we suggested seven in the first place) but having been told by National Council that only six were to be allowed and then having made a decision to be subsequently overruled, the Tournaments Committee are far from pleased.

To finally close, on the subject of the press item referred to in the magazine, the Tournaments Committee were not aware of any earlier disagreements in committee and we can only put this down to paper talk. As there are again seven applications in for season 1990/91, it will be interesting to see how National Council will vote. Who knows, we might be in the same position again when the next Tournament Committee is set up.

Secretary of the Tournaments Committee, written on behalf of all committee members.

"Challenge to Sport"

I AM writing with feedback from "Challenge to Sport" Come and try sessions organised by Our Lady of Peace Community Centre on behalf of the Reading & District Table Tennis Association.

Our three sessions attracted over 70 people to the centre, and all ages and levels of players were represented. Bar and refreshment facilities helped to make the programme a real family occasion. The clubs top junior and senior players offered help and coaching as well as advice on bats and dress etc. Though we were unsure of how many people would attend for the sessions, it turned out to be a very worthy exercise.

Late deliveries of T.T.N.

I WAS most disappointed to find that the last issue was on sale at two tournaments at least a week before I received my postal issue. I was thus forced to buy a copy because people were asking me to comment on my Surrey notes and other articles. I am sure you can arrange that those who pay by Subscription receive their copies at the same time as the bulk buyers.

Reply from Office:
May I assure you that all copies of Table Tennis News are despatched on the correct day as far as the post office and distributors are concerned but they do not have any vendetta against any subscribers.

Occasionally we have a situation where a delivery will be made late on a Friday to Hastings and as there is a tournament on the Saturday or Sunday, bulk copies will be taken to that by one of our Events staff for sale there. The normal despatch of individual copies will then take place on the Saturday morning by second class post. With the vagaries of the postal system, this could result in your not receiving a copy for a few days and thus lead to the conclusion that we are despaching on different time scales. I can assure you that this is not the case.

All I can guarantee is that copies will be despatched on the same day; I cannot of course guarantee that they are received at the same time as differing methods of transport between bulk suppliers and postal distributors may lead to the kind of experience which you have had.

Armenian Disaster thanks

2 Letters received by Mr Jack Reeve relating to the money sent towards the Armenian Disaster Fund.
Mr. M. J. Reeves Gloucestershire Table Tennis Association
28th June 1989

Dear Mr. Reeves,

Thank you very much for your letter of the 21st June and for enclosing your cheque for £213.00.

I am making arrangements for the donation to be transmitted to the Soviet Table Tennis Association in order that they can purchase equipment for the schoolchildren in Armenia.

As you can appreciate, it may take a few weeks for them to acknowledge this generous donation, and I am also sure, once the equipment has been purchased you will be contacted by the authorities in Armenia.

On their behalf, however, I would personally like to thank your association for their generosity and hope that the equipment purchased will bring some light into the sad faces of the schoolchildren so badly affected by the tragedy.

Our grateful thanks once again to you all.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Reeves,

On behalf of the Soviet Government and the Soviet people I would like to express to you my gratitude and warm feelings for your understanding of tragic situation in Soviet Armenia, which suffered a disastrous earthquake, and for your material assistance for those who suffered. I can assure you that your generous donation is highly appreciated and will be immediately and directly transferred to the government and public organisations taking part in relief work in Armenia.

Yours sincerely,

As stated in the Courtside story, there was no personal criticism of Rob Oldfield. He did all he could in the time he had available. In the end he was unable to cope and had to call it a day. Further proof that this magazine takes at least 18 hours a week if the Editor is writing stories, collecting information, preparing copy, correcting spelling and bad grammar, re-writing, doing the "paste-up" and checking proofs at two stages.

Whatever Happened to...

Writing as a player for last 30 odd years but have only been buying Table Tennis News for last 15 months I have been out of touch with Table Tennis except for headlines in Newspapers.

The article in Courtside re 1977 World Championships and ages of our players prompts me to ask what has happened to such as Paul Day, and Darren Blake. Why have we not heard of them since?

London & S E Region Unofficial Ranking Lists

I HAVE known Dave Baker (father of Dave and the delightful Katrina) for quite a long time, but had never thought of his eyesight being other than perfect. His letter in your May edition now makes me wonder.

I compiled the ranking lists which have made him so unhappy. I cannot answer for your failure to put alongside them the official lists, but as these took up a full page in the March edition, I personally would not blame you.

Had you done so, however, it should have become apparent to Dave and the other allegedly upset parents that my lists conformed rigidly to the official national computer lists in respect of all players, including David Baker, Edward Hatley and Darren Blake.

What Dave has not spotted is that I used the Junior list as my guide and where the Cadet list differed, I did not alter the positions.

For instance, David was ranked number 19 by me as he was the 19th best regional player listed nationally, with Edward Hatley at number 20. Thus, in our Cadet list, David stayed above Edward, despite the fact that Edward was nationally four places higher. All this is confirmed by Bernard Rowley.

In the light of the above, I do not understand Dave's protests. How can any injustice have been caused if the National computer lists were strictly adhered to?

Ron Fosker replies to John Woodford’s comments on Rob Oldfield

I COULD not let John Woodford’s self-congratulatory and insulting comments in Courtside (April issue) on Rob Oldfield’s past contribution to Table Tennis News pass without comment.

Mr. Woodford says of the March 1986 issue of the magazine; ‘In general it was pretty appalling – that is no reflection on Rob Oldfield who struggled with the magazine for several months before his career beckoned.’

Of course it is a reflection on Rob Oldfield. How can you call a magazine appalling without it reflecting on its editor?

Rob did indeed struggle. He had numerous difficulties getting the magazine out and one reason was that he was determined to edit it, not just put everything in as it came. Journalistically speaking he was by far the best editor the magazine has had. He used to take the trouble to make sure it read properly and not leave in for example sentences like: ‘No story about him would be perfect without being mentioned on his 4-year-long self-discipline and devoted desire to the victory.’

This contribution, from a South Korean writer, appeared in the March 1989 issue, and was not the first example of strange English, whether from a foreign contributor or a league/country representative that has appeared over the last three years.

An editor’s job is to make the thing readable, something Rob Oldfield understood – and did.

Despite talking about Rob ‘struggling with the magazine for several months’, John Woodford begins by saying ‘There was apparently no editor — “Editorial” was by Rob Oldfield’. It is unclear whether the quote marks round the word editorial indicate that he feels it was not editorial in the real sense or whether he doesn’t understand the function of quote marks. Neither conclusion does him much credit.

But that is a minor point. I sat on the ETTA public relations committee with John Woodford and Rob Oldfield when Rob was appointed editor of the magazine. He remained editor, I believe, for a season.

Mr. Woodford may not keep back issues of the magazine, but why has he blocked Rob’s appointment as editor from his memory?

John Woodford has done much for table tennis, particularly through his regular coverage in the Daily Telegraph, and, it has to be said, by taking on the demanding task of editing the magazine.

But Rob Oldfield also did much for the game. And he didn’t feel the need to keep telling us about it. To call your predecessor’s version of the magazine appalling and to say of one’s own tenure: ‘We have come a long way since then’ is self-congratulation of the highest order.

Leave the congratulations – or otherwise – to others, John. They may not necessarily agree with you.

SOUTH AFRICA

The governing body recognised by the ITTF is the South African Table Tennis Board (P O Box 3589, Durban 4000, Republic of South Africa).

Members considering a visit to South Africa are asked to contact both this body and the ETTA if they contemplate any play or other sporting links. Otherwise there is a grave danger that they will be in breach of ITTF and ETTA Rules which may lead to such matters being referred to the Disciplinary Committee of the ETTA.

This has the power to impose penalties ranging from warnings to life time suspensions.

Please take advice before you act.
The Leeds Masters

Swedish Star for Preston

SWEDISH TABLE tennis star Erik Lindh has confirmed he will be battling for one of the world's most prestigious titles when he joins the line-up at the Leeds Masters, Preston Guild Hall on 15-16 September 1989.

Lindh has an impressive track record as a member of the team who took the European title in 1988 and won gold at the recent World Championships, defeating China in the final. Although in peak fitness, he will face tough opposition in the form of J. P. Gatien (France) and the favourite Poland's Andrzej Grubba, who is out to win his fourth consecutive title.

BBC "Grandstand" cameras will be filming at the Guild Hall, giving armchair table tennis fans a chance to see the action on the Saturday afternoon.

Tickets are priced £1 for the Friday evening session and £2.50 for Saturday, with half price tickets on sale for children and OAP's. Buyers of tickets for Saturday can come along on Friday to watch free. Tickets are available from The Guild Hall Box Office (Tel: 0772 58858 -credit card bookings available) or from the English Table Tennis Association (Tel: 0474 722525).

John Woodford will be writing a detailed article of this event in the November issue of Table Tennis News.

Courting Nostalgia

Some 70 years ago nine-year-old Margot Reading invited a schoolfriend called Fred Perry to play table-tennis at her home in Ealing, West London. It was the first time the future world-class ping-pong player and three times Wimbledon tennis champion had picked up a bat. He took to it rather well.

Partner

Margot, 80, with him at Drayton Green School, wanted to contact Fred. She happens to still have the bats and a net which she wondered if Fred would like. Always willing to help, I stepped forward down at Wimbledon onto the court of nostalgia.

I talked to Fred, who talked to Margot, who is sending him the equipment which he plans to pass on to the British Table Tennis Association.

Incidentally, Margot remembers Fred well as her dancing partner for Mayday hops and as a particularly fine back-half of a theatrical cow!

The above is an article from the Daily Express of 5th July 1989 giving an account of how Fred Perry was introduced to the game of table tennis by Margot Reading. Fred subsequently has passed on the equipment to the ETTA for their Museum as stated in Fred's letter to Ted Wallbutton reproduced above.

New Events Manager

THE ETTA has appointed a new Events Manager, Jenny Hughes, 27, who has taken over the administration of the national events calendar from Mike Watts with the Leeds English Open in January 1990 set to be the biggest challenge of the season.

She has joined the ETTA from the Ball Park, Eastbourne, the prestigious indoor tennis and health club, where she was Sports Manager. Her previous appointments have included being Duty Manager at Hailsham Leisure Centre and Recreation Assistant at Kings Leisure Centre, East Grinstead.

Although her playing background does not include table tennis, Jenny has always been very involved in the other three racket sports, both playing and coaching, especially tennis where she finished her junior tennis career by playing at Junior Wimbledon in 1980. She is looking forward to being involved in table tennis and maybe learning a few playing tips on the way!
