

DISCLOSURE AND BARRING SERVICE (DBS) CHECKS

All qualified and registered table tennis coaches operating within England are required to obtain an Enhanced DBS Check (formerly CRB) certificate which must be renewed every 3 years. Table Tennis England uses an online DBS application system which makes it cheaper, faster and easier to obtain an Enhanced Disclosure Certificate, and will only accept checks carried out through TMG CRB, via the process explained in this document.

Current Costs:

	TMG CRB Admin Fee	DBS fee (paid coach only)	Post Office ID verification
Online Application	£12.60	£44.00	£7.15

The process: Online Application to TMG

Please note: To apply online you will need an email address and access to a printer.

9. Pay for the DBS application and ID verification at the Post Office

TMG CRB will check the application before submitting the application to DBS for further processing. This processing typically takes up to 10 working days. Upon completion, the DBS will issue a copy of the DBS Disclosure to you direct and notify Table Tennis England that it has been issued.

*DBS defines a volunteer as "any person engaged in an activity which involves spending time, unpaid (except for travel and other approved out-of-pocket expenses), doing something which aims to benefit some third party and not a close relative." To qualify as a volunteer the applicant must not receive any payment (except for travel and other approved out-of-pocket expenses), be on a work placement or be on a course that requires them to do this job role, or be in a trainee position that will lead to a full time role/qualification.
